LOOK OUT FOR FIRE!

To Theater Owners, Managers and Whom it May Concern:

This is to certify that I have equipped the Windsor theater in this city with the Lindgren stationary chemical fire engines. After examining all other systems of fire protection and after repeated tests of the Lindgren stationary chemical fire engine, and upon the recommendation of the insurance underwriters, I have no hesitation in pronouncing it the cheapest and most powerful, as well as perfect, fire protection for theaters ever invented. In my opinion every theater and opera house in the United States, as well as Europe, should be equipped with these chemical fire engines, and thus save the loss of life and thousands of dollars in property.

Respectfully,
(Signed) H. I. GOLDY,
Owner Windsor Theater, Chicago, Ill.

See What a Practical Fireman Says.

Tacoma, Wash., Sept. 19, 1889.

To Whom It May Concern:

This is to certify that I, George A. Burbank, witnessed the exhibition of the Lindgren chemical engine test to-day, and as I have witnessed a great many such chemical tests in New York City, Boston, Mass., and other large cities in the East, I hereby state that it was the quickest and most satisfactory test, and was also pronounced so by two of our councilmen and all the citizens present, and I will also state that the time of applying the chemical was left entirely to me and I did not give the word until the fire was well started, for in other tests I have witnessed they have always put the chemical on the minute the fire was started and water would answer just as well, as there was nothing but the flame started and the wood not charred, and I take great pleasure in recommending the "Lindgren" as far superior to any other "Chemical" engine on the market.

(Signed) GEORGE A. BURBANK,
1 Secretary Paid Fire Department.
Director of the Northwestern Fire Association.
Was last year Secretary of the Northwestern Fireman's Association.

The above engines are made in one, three and five-gallon sizes for hand use; sixty-gallon single tank on two wheels, two eighty-gallon tanks on four wheels, sixty, one hundred, three hundred and five hundred-gallon stationary; other sizes made to order.

GOSSIP IN WASHINGTON.

Plans and Actions of Western Statesmen.

WHY HERMANN VOTED FOR REED

Silver Men Want to Know if the Speaker Is a Goldbug.

MR. WILSON BEGINS VERY SLOW

Oregon's Congressman and the River and Harbor Committee—Washington to Be Represented at the Tideland Hearing.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—The flag which was unfurled at noon to-day from the dome of the capitol was the first ever floated from the dome with forty-two stars on it. The four senators of the new states, Moody and Pettigrew of South Dakota, and Squire and Allen of Washington, were on the floor of the senate and took the oath. Their appearance brought the only burst of applause heard in the senate chamber, and the interest of all centered in the new senators. Senator Plumb escorted Judge Moody, Senator Spooner gave his his arm to Senator Pettigrew, and Senators Dolph and Mitchell, of Oregon, chaperoned their neighbors, Allen and Squire. The ceremony took but a minute and was very formal. Senators Pierce and Casey, of North Dakota, were not present, nor were their credentials passed in. The visitors from South Dakota had arrived just in time to see their senators take the oath.

TERMS OF THE SENATORS.

Under a resolution of Senator Hoar the three states that have elected senators will be considered as having been admitted to the Union simultaneously, and the order of precedence will be determined by lot. This will make a difference in the length of some of the terms. Four members will be drawn from a list by representatives of the states. No. 1 will be the thirty-ninth state, No. 2 the fortieth, and so on. The thirty-ninth state senators get a draw for a two and a four-year term. The senators from the fortieth and forty-first get draws for two six-year terms, a four and a two-year term. This makes it a little advantage to come from the fortieth or forty-first states, so the positions will be determined by lot, as Mr. Hoar took the position that as all were admitted by virtue of proceedings held on the same day, a difference in distance, which made Washington last, ought not to cut any figure.

Montana was not mentioned in the resolution. Mr. Vest wanted an equal provision made for that state.

"The senators from that state will lose nothing by not being included," said Mr. Hoar.

WHY HERMANN VOTED FOR REED.

Representative Hermann, of Oregon, justifies his vote for Reed for the speakership of the house, which was cast only on the second ballot, in face of an understood injunction to favor a Western man on the ground that there were four Western men, and when he asked for a Western man he couldn't find him. John P. Wilson, of Washington, voted for McKinley, and Bartine, of Nevada, cast his vote for Henderson of Iowa. The only Californian who voted for Reed is McKenna. Carter of Montana voted for Reed. Morrow of California was not in Washington, and consequently did not go on record on the speakership question. It is stated that he was ticketed for Reed.

HOW THE NEW STATES VOTED.

Representatives Carter Hansbrough and Wilson to-day cast their first votes as members of the national congress. They voted with regularity and ease on the republican side of all questions that were presented, and Hansbrough was once caught waving his hands to the republicans to get up, as if he was marshaling some hosts in a North Dakota convention. Delegate Dubois, who labored so hard to secure the nomination of Rev. Ramsdell as chaplain in the republican caucus, saw his friend turned down by the fact that a few republicans bolted the caucus and a few others dodged voting on the proposition, and the blind minister who prayed for the democrats at the last session will officiate in the republican house.

The Northwestern members were together most of the time during the preliminaries. With Binger Hermann, of Oregon, they strayed about the floor of the house before it was called to order, and got acquainted with the other members. In calling the roll by states, to ascertain who was present, the first new state called was Montana, and it only created a little comment. When the state of North Dakota was called there was more attention paid to it, as Dakota has been discussed more in congress than Montana. Carter and Hansbrough were alive to everything that was going on, as was Hermann, who has already served one term.

NORTHWESTERN MEN ALL DREW PRIZES.

These gentlemen were especially favored in the drawing of seats. Carter was among the very first called, and Hansbrough followed him immediately. They chose seats next the aisle, opposite each other, on the fourth row from the speaker. Hansbrough is in the third section from the middle aisle, and Carter in the Fourth section. Hermann of Oregon chose the seat occupied by Speaker Reed at the last session, and is just behind McKinley. Delegate Dubois's name was called early, and he took a seat next to Delegate Casey, of Wyoming. It is on the same row with Carter and Hansbrough, but in the middle of the second section of the republican side. Joe Cannon sits at his left. All these Northwesterners have fared well in the drawing of seats.

GOSSIP ABOUT THE COMMITTEES.

Gossip says Cannon will be chairman of the appropriation committee. McKenna, of California, is to go on the ways and means, and Morrow is said to be slated for a good place. Hermann's ambition is to go on the committee on rivers and harbors.

HOPES AND FEARS OF SILVER MEN.

Payson, of Illinois, is the first republican on the committee on coinage, measures and currency. He is a thorough silver man, and much interest is felt in his advancement to the chairmanship of that committee. General Vandever, of California, is also on that committee. The formation of this committee will show whether or not Mr. Reed is with the gold bugs. The silver men are somewhat disappointed with the turn things have taken. The danger to partisan legislation also disturbs them. They can win only with the votes of the South. The congressmen from the silver states are nearly all republicans, and on straight party issues would probably be whipped into line. This would be likely to create a political gulf between the South and West, across which it would be impossible to throw a silver bridge.

HOW STANFORD WOULD ABOLISH POVERTY.

Senator Stanford has arrived, making the trip in four days and sixteen hours, the best time ever made on schedule time from San Francisco to Washington. Stanford will introduce a bill to encourage co-operation and to provide for the formation of associations for the purpose of conducting any lawful business and dividing the profits thereof among the members. The title fully explains the bill. It provides for the association and organization of individuals, with or without capital. It gives no exclusive privileges, and is intended only to aid the natural rights of association.

"The organization of individuals for a common purpose," he says, "gives the strength and capacity of the ablest to the association. The weakest, those of least capacity, are brought up in advantages to the level of the best. Such an association will give its members the full fruits of their labor. Co-operation I believe to be the means whereby the highest possibilities of humanity may be reached.

"Poverty," he continues, "is not a necessity. Want is not a necessity. If it were, then the beneficence of the Creator might well be questioned. When we see what has been done in the past century we have reason to hope for almost everything in the next."

Stanford has an ideal organization in mind, a law under which men and women may unite for the best distribution of their various talents, and to the end that they may be continuously employed. The whole theory is based on the idea that the world's supplies of necessities, comforts, elegancies and splendors of life are only measured by the amount of intelligent labor that is applied to the cultivation of the soil, to the working of mines, quarries and forests and their products, and if there is want among the provident and industrious it must be for lack of intelligent direction and application of labor.

WILSON IN THE REAR.

In the house to-day in calling the roll by states to ascertain who was present, John L. Wilson did not answer until there was a second roll call. Wilson gets in an argument and forgets that he is in congress. The same thing happened when he was called up to be sworn, and he was as far behind that Speaker Reed had repeated more than half the oath before he got there, and he came running down the aisle with his hand up, trying to catch as much of it as he could. Wilson was one of the last names called in the drawing of seats, and he secured a seat on the row behind Carter and two seats from the aisle. He is between Snyder of Minnesota and Williams, of Ohio.

THE PUGET SOUND TIDELANDS.

W. C. Jones, attorney-general of Washington, arrived in this city to-day. On the 14th he will appear before the land commissioner in the hearing as to the validity of title held under Valentine scrip, a test case involving title to lands worth many millions of dollars on Puget sound.

DEVOTION TO FREE TRADE.

Democrats Again Pledge Allegiance to Cleveland's Tariff Principles.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—The house democratic caucus met this morning and the officers were renominated. The following was adopted without division:

Resolved, That we, the democratic members of the house of the fifty-first congress at the beginning of the first session, hereby send greeting to the people of the country and the assurance of our continuous confidence in and devotion to the principles of tariff reform, as embraced in Cleveland's messages to the last congress upon that subject, and in the platform of principles adopted at the last democratic national convention at St. Louis; that we hail with delight the emphatic approval of these principles by the people, as expressed at the polls in the recent elections, and pledge them to renew and continue in congress the contest or a reduction of war taxes so ably begun and prosecuted in former congresses by our representatives and senators.

The question of election of permanent officers and modification of the house rules was postponed. Adjourned.

FORT MISSOULA RESERVATION.

Secretary Noble Refuses to Overrule a Decision of President Arthur.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Secretary Noble to-day decided several land cases, on which appeals had been taken from the ruling of former land commissioners. The land was situated in Montana and was entered under the desert land act. It was in section 30, township 13, range 19, in the Helena district, and the application was rejected on the ground that it was a part of the Fort Missoula military reservation. On the appeal the question was raised that the order of the president in 1878, setting apart this tract of 160 acres of land for a part of the military reservation, was not valid, because the law provides that not to exceed 640 acres at one place shall be devoted to the reservation, and there was a tract of that size before the president's order. The attorney general believes the president was fully empowered to make the order, and accordingly the application for a review of the case is denied, because Secretary Noble says so long as the war department assumes to exercise to control over tracts of land, the land department will not interfere.

APPROPRIATIONS FOR 1891.

An Increase of Eighteen Millions Over the 1890 Estimates.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Secretary Windom to-day sent to congress estimates for the appropriations required for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1891. It is estimated that $341,426,977 will be needed. The estimates for 1890 were $323,467,488, and the appropriations for the present fiscal year $328,495,936.

The principal increase in the estimates is for pensions and public works, the former exceeding the appropriations for the present year by $3,827,526, and the latter by $6,996,272.

WASHINGTON NEWS ITEMS.

Civil Service Reform a Success.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—The annual report of the civil service commission calls special attention to the need of adequate means to carry on the work. The number of applications examined the last fiscal year was nearly double the preceding year, while the working force remained exactly same. The commission asks for an appropriation of $50,000 for the next fiscal year. After reviewing the changes and improvements in the system at great length the report says: The merit system of making appointments, as contrasted with the patronage system, is no longer in the experimental stage. Wherever its trial has been fair the system has worked admirably.

Oregon Postmasters Appointed.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—The following postmasters were appointed to-day: North Dakota—Daniel Freeman, Bradley, Clark county; Oregon—H. W. Bucher, Alder, Wallowa county; J. G. Walker, Keno, Klamath county; Dayton Fairchild, Stone City, Malheur county; Mrs. O. M. Bower, Hillsdale, Multnomah county; Mrs. E. E. Osborne, Galic, Josephine county; J. E. Sibley, Hobsonville, Tillamook county; U. Rolfe, Marion.

A new postoffice was to-day created at Homer, Grant county, Oregon, with W. W. Stone postmaster.

Wool Growers Endorse the Senate Bill.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—A preliminary meeting of the National Wool Growers' Association was held to-day. Owing to the non-arrival of a large number of delegates, the regular business of the meeting was postponed until to-morrow. It is understood that part of the Mills bill relating to wool and woolens, as amended and passed by the senate at the last session, will receive the endorsement and support of the association.

THE CONSPIRACY AGAINST CRONIN.

Effort of the Defense to Discredit the Evidence Concerning Coughlin.

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—At the opening of the Cronin case this morning, testimony in rebuttal was presented regarding the knives, said to be Cronin's, found on Coughlin when arrested. Anton Lowenstein a tailor, said he saw Coughlin have knives similar to them April 28. Jake Lowenstein, Anton's brother and Coughlin's partner on the detective force, swore that Coughlin owned two knives.

Judge Wing then resumed his argument to the jury in behalf of the defense. He continued his review of the evidence, and, coming down to the two knives supposed to be Cronin's, said: "This question is very easily disposed of by two propositions: First, Coughlin is either guilty or innocent, and if innocent he could not have had these knives; if guilty, he would not have had them if they were Cronin's. These two plain propositions, in the mind of any reasoning man, would be the end of that knife episode, the last and grand climax that the state gave to the case of suspicion against these men."

Judge Wing then took up the question of the alleged conspiracy in Camp 20. The state, he said, had to make out a conspiracy because this case could not be maintained in any court of justice against defendants unless the fact of a conspiracy was established beyond all reasonable doubt. Speaking of the ways in which to establish a conspiracy, he said: "You can consider all the proven facts, and from them infer the conspiracy, if the conspiracy is proven by that process, beyond all reasonable doubt. It is fair and it is right under the law that when you are weighing any circumstance against Coughlin you should look at the circumstance in the light of the law, but not in the light of the facts proven against other men. I object to this jury or court taking a partly proven conspiracy, and from it giving color and character to individual circumstances and facts proven against my client."

Wing then went on to say he had never heard presented so absurd a theory of conspiracy as the state presents in this case. The state pretends, he said, that there are a multitude of circumstances which if considered, lead to the conclusion of a conspiracy independent of Camp 20. That is not material. The question is whether facts proven against the men on trial indicate that they were criminal participants in some conspiracy which resulted in Cronin's death. It may be his death did result from a conspiracy, but that is not what you are here to try. If it is uncertain, then there must be an acquittal, and that there is uncertainty about it from inception to end is most conclusively demonstrated.

The speaker then went on to argue that various circumstances adduced in evidence to show Coughlin's connection with the crime were consistent with the theory of innocence. As to the noted horse, even if it were the animal which drew Cronin to his death, still Coughlin might be innocent. He might not have known what the man from Michigan wanted it for.

FOR WAYS THAT ARE DARK.

Bret Harte's Son Is Peculiar—A Scandalous Disclosure in Court.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—A scandal affecting Francis E. Harte, son of Bret Harte, was developed here to-day, when Peter Smith had his children brought into the supreme court chambers on a habeas corpus for the purpose of gaining custody of them, alleging that his wife, who has them, lives scandalously with Harte. The court appointed a referee to consider the application.

CHAPLAIN MILBURN RE-ELECTED

The Caucus Nominee Beaten—Speaker Reed Promises Fair Treatment of Persons and Section.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Little or no excitement attended the opening of the fifty-first congress on the senate side. Public curiosity seemed to be transferred to the house. The interest on the floor was devoted largely to the senators from the new states. They had seats assigned them on the republican side. Senator Casey of North Dakota took a seat on the end of the second row, against the north wall. Directly behind him sat the Washington senators, Allen and Squire, while Pettigrew and Moody, of South Dakota, sat in the fourth row, near the center of the room. Senator Pierce of North Dakota, has the end seat in the fourth row, but he was not present to-day. On the democratic side are two seats, so far unassigned. They will be occupied by the senators from Montana when they have been chosen.

The chaplain opened the proceedings with prayer. The oath of office was administered by Vice-President Morton to Senators Chambers of New Hampshire and Nathan F. Dixon, of Rhode Island.

The credentials of Moody and Pettigrew of South Dakota, and Allen and Squire of Washington were presented. Platt moved that the oath of office be administered. The motion was agreed to, and the four new senators, each supported by a senator, proceeded to the clerk's desk, and amid applause from the galleries took the oath of office.

Hoar offered a resolution, which was referred to the committee on privileges and elections, that the three states that have elected senators will be considered as having been admitted to the Union simultaneously, and the order of precedence of senators determined by lot.

Hoar said it had been the custom of the senate to assign the new senators to their respective classes as soon as they had taken oath, but now for the first time the senators from three states entered substantially at the same time. His resolution, he said, proceeded on the theory that the senators stood on an entire equality with reference to their opportunity, to be assigned to short or long term. The fact that the proclamations evidencing admission of the two Dakotas preceded Washington by two days was due to the greater distance the returns from the latter state had to come, and it gave the Dakotas no just title to priority.

Mr. Vest inquired whether there was anything in the resolution in reference to Montana.

"Nothing," replied Mr. Hoar. "I do not understand that the senators from Montana are here or likely to be here very soon. The senators from Montana will lose nothing by not being included in the resolution."

Edmunds and Harris were appointed a committee to join a like committee from the house to inform the president that congress was ready to receive any communication he may choose to make.

A resolution providing for continuance of the select committee on transportation and sale of meat products was agreed to.

Aldrich offered a resolution, which was laid over, for appointment of a select committee of nine senators, to be the "quadro-centennial committee," to which shall be referred all matters connected with the proposed celebration of the four hundredth anniversary of the discovery of America. Adjourned.

OPENING OF THE HOUSE.

Milburn, the Blind Preacher, Chosen Chaplain—Assignment of Seats.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—As the gallery doors of the house swung outward this morning there was a wild rush for seats, and in a few moments there was standing room only. On the floor the members mingled together chatting and laughing.

At noon Clerk Clark called the house to order. The roll call showed the presence of 327 members, the three absentees being O'Neal, of Indiana, Randall, of Pennsylvania and Whitthorne, of Tennessee. Reed was placed in nomination for speaker by Henderson, of Illinois. The mention of Reed's name was a signal for applause on the republican side, which was returned with interest by the democrats when McCreary, of Kentucky, nominated Carlisle. The vote resulted: Reed, 166; Carlisle, 154; Cummings, of New York, 1. Reed having been declared elected speaker, was escorted to the chair by McKinley and Carlisle, amid great applause, and the oath of office administered by Kelley, of Pennsylvania. Randall, of Pennsylvania, was paired with Wilbur, of New York.

SPEAKER REED'S ADDRESS.

On taking his seat Mr. Reed said:

I thank you for the high office which your voices have bestowed upon me. It has been impossible not to be moved by it, and yet you may well imagine that I am at this moment more impressed by its responsibilities and duties. Under our system of government, as it has been developed, these responsibilities and duties are both personal and political, and I hope they may be performed with a proper sense of what is due all the people of the whole of the country, so far as they are parliamentary. I hope, with equal sincerity, that they may be performed with a proper sense of what is due both sides of the chamber. [Applause.] That I may be successful in carrying out your wishes, I invoke the considerate judgment and cordial wishes of all the members. [Long applause.]

The next step in the organization was swearing in the members elected, and as they arranged themselves in squares of twenty at a time in the space in front of the clerk's desk the oath was administered by the speaker.

ELECTION OF OTHER OFFICERS.

The house then proceeded to election of other officers. Edward McPherson was elected clerk, A. F. Holmes sergeant-at-arms, C. A. Adams doorkeeper, and James L. Wheat postmaster.

When it came to the election of chaplain there was a fight. Rev. Charles B. Ramsdell, nominee of the republican caucus, was defeated, and the chaplain of the last house, William H. Milburn, the blind preacher was re-elected. These officers were then sworn in. McKinley, Cannon and Carlisle were appointed a committee to inform the president that the house was organized and ready to proceed with business.

DRAWING LOTS FOR SEATS.

Perkins, of Kansas, offered a resolution, which was adopted, providing for drawing seats by lot. On motion of McCreary, of Kentucky, a resolution was adopted, the effect of which was to permit Ex-Speakers Banks, Randall, Carlisle and Kelley, of Pennsylvania, to select their seats. In accordance with McCreary's resolution Banks selected a seat to the left of the speaker's desk, well in front. Randall's old seat was secured for him, and Kelley selected that which he has occupied for so many years. Carlisle selected a seat across the aisle from that occupied last session by Mills. Then the lottery began. "P" proved the lucky letter, the first three names called being Perry, Paynter and Perkins. Grosvenor and Breckenridge, of Kentucky; Mason, of Illinois, and Cannon were favorites of fortune, and retained their old desks. McKinley obtained a desk well in the center of the house, with Hitt, of Illinois, as neighbor. The first fortunate New Yorkers were Farquhar, who seated himself in front of McKinley, and Flower, who chose the seat which he occupied before. Lodge, of Massachusetts, preferred the companionship of McKinley and Hitt to a more prominent position, and joined the little group which had surrounded these popular members. Mills, of Texas, secured a seat much less advantageously situated than at the last session.

The drawing being concluded, the sergeant-at-arms-elect appeared at the bar of the house and qualified. Bayne, of Pennsylvania, offered a resolution directing the speaker to appoint committees on rules, accounts, enrolled bills and mileage, each to consist of the same number of members as is provided for by the rules of the Fiftieth congress, and referring the rules of the Fiftieth congress to the committee on rules; adopted. Adjourned.

GOULD COMING WEST.

What Broadening of Rio Grande Tracks Will Do.

THE SANTA FE REORGANIZATION

Route of the Manitoba to Spokane Traverses the Kootenay Country—Extension of the West Side Road Demanded.

DENVER, Dec. 2.—The recent purchase by the Union Pacific of the Fort Worth railroad is followed by many other rumors of consolidation and agreements between Western trunk lines. President Moffat, of the Denver & Rio Grande railroad, who has returned from a meeting of the directors of that road in New York city to-day said: "It will cost $1,000,000 to broaden the gauge of the Denver & Rio Grande, between Canyon City and Grand Junction, including the line to Leadville, and over $1,000,000 will be invested in rolling stock. The narrow gauge equipment will be continued on the narrow gauge to Durango and San Juan and over Marshall Pass. The Missouri Pacific will use the Denver & Rio Grande broad gauge to Grand Junction, and then the Rio Grande Western to Utah. Gould is working for a connection to the Pacific coast. His arrangement for use of the Denver & Rio Grande broad gauge is similar to the one now in effect between Denver and Pueblo. The contract for the Acequia cut off will be let in the spring.

The Burlington and Rock Island will probably use the short line for connections to Grand Junction, and Union Pacific rain will run via Pueblo. It will require a year to finish the short line, but broadening of the gauge to the West will be pushed at once.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Although the final contracts are not drawn up, the Union Pacific will take charge of the Denver, Texas & Fort Worth road from to-day. There is no disagreement concerning terms.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—Samuel Scott, secretary of the reorganization committee of the Rio Grande Western road, arrived to-day from New York. Concerning railway movements between Ogden and Denver, he says that before long this city will have two new broad gauge connections through Colorado.

NORTHERN PACIFIC PROGRESS.

Little Falls Cut Off Opened—Purchase of Refrigerator Cars.

ST. PAUL, Dec. 2.—Circulars were issued to-day from the office of General Manager Mellen of the Northern Pacific, conveying the following information: The extension of the Jamestown & Northern Pacific railroad from Minnewaukon, a distance of 18 miles, has been completed and will be ready after December 1.

The cut off from Little Falls to the Paul division, to Staples, a distance of 34 miles, has been completed and is now in operation as part of the St. Paul division, under the jurisdiction of Superintendent Joseph McCabe.

The Northern Pacific has ordered 100 new refrigerator cars for spring business. They are to be standard cars and have all the latest and improved appliances.

FOURTH LINE TO KOOTENAI.

The Manitoba Will Pass Through on the Way to Spokane Falls.

SPOKANE FALLS, Dec. 2.—The chief engineer of the Manitoba road left Kootenai station yesterday for Bonners Ferry, on the Kootenai river, to look over the country in the interest of his company. It is understood that the Manitoba contemplates building down the Kootenai river to Bonner's Ferry, thence southwesterly toward Spokane Falls.

This makes the fourth railroad contemplating a line into the Kootenai mining country, the others being the Canadian Pacific, Spokane & Northern and the Northern Pacific.

CORVALLIS TO EUGENE.

If the West Side Road is Not Built, Another Will Be.

CORVALLIS, Dec. 2.—A number of prominent capitalists of this city are giving the building of a railway from this city to Eugene serious consideration. Outside capital is interested in the scheme. Action will be taken at once for a joint committee from every city of importance on the west side to interview Manager Koehler as to the intentions of the Southern Pacific and unless assurances looking to the early completion of the road can be had, an independent road will be built.

SANTA FE REORGANIZATION

Advantageous to the Creditors and the Only Alternative to Bankruptcy.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—Concerning the Santa Fe's reorganization scheme, President Manvel said to-day: "George G. Magoun as representative of the bankers interested in the road has submitted a plan to the holders of Santa Fe mortgages by which the company's finances can be reorganized so that interest on them, together with taxes and rentals, shall not exceed $7,500,000 a year, which is practically all the road earns. If the mortgage holders agree to the plan, they will get new mortgages to run for 100 years at 4 per cent., instead of 6; to make up the loss they will sustain in this way they will be given income bonds at 5 per cent. in addition to the interest to be paid if the road earns enough.

"The plan will undoubtedly be accepted. It is a business proposition that will keep the system intact instead of having it split up into fifty different parts, with a receiver for each part."

Mr. Manvel leaves the city to-morrow, going first to Benson, A. T., via Mojave and Albuquerque, then to Guaymas, Mexico.

A CRIME AGAINST THE PEOPLE

Powerful Demonstration of the Democratic Bosses of Montana.

HELENA, Dec. 2.—The Journal to-morrow will say: "No change has yet appeared in the situation but the general feeling may be outlined as follows: A great crime is day by day being perpetrated against the people of Montana, not by the ordinarily criminal classes, but by eight democratic leaders, who take no risks of prison, perhaps, but are perpetrating a crime of greater turpitude than is defined by any statute, and who will be held for all time guilty of treason, which is being rapidly crystalized and defined by public perception, and the enormity of which is a perpetually increasing quantity. For the greed of wealth and withdraw its enticements, temptations and apologize from these conspirators, and they shall be required to look the hard headed plain people of Montana in the face and answer them for this great wrong. It will seem quite another thing. They have conspired to throttle the state, to take the commonwealth, and the state their own and to own. Elected to fill the highest legislative positions in the gift of a great people, positions of honor if nobly filled, they have taken their acts in their hands at request of their people, evince a healthy circulation therein, and deliberately betraying that trust promise of action that disgrace them altogether.

We refuse to contemplate the evil consequences which their unpatriotic purpose would visit on the state, on the people, their industries and patriotism on the good name of Montana for whatever the hot heads and ringleaders who have no responsibilities may devise. We have faith since a few days of reflection we think satisfy these senators that they could not afford to entrust honor nor duty to such keeping and better counsel would prevail. The time is near at hand when, in all its hideous character, this course will be by them condemned. The honors which to-day are being trailed in the dust, the responsibilities which are being betrayed, the duties which are left undone will henceforth be placed in secure hands. There will be no second betrayal. We do not desire it will thus we have hoped, and we hope that these citizens who heretofore have had reputations for patriotism untarnished will refuse to dishonor them with an ineffaceable stain but will cheerfully go to the senate to which they were elected, and there discharge the duties expected, and worthily the honors with which by the people they have been crowned."

HELENA, Mont., Dec. 2.—The senate met again to-day with only republicans present and adjourned until to-morrow. The republican house met, adopted rules and adjourned until to-morrow. The democratic house held a short session, but nothing of importance was done. There is no prospect of any immediate change in the situation.

SNEAK THIEVES IN OLYMPIA.

Residences Entered and Robbed in Broad Day—The Criminals Caught.

OLYMPIA, Dec. 2.—A wholesale burglary occurred here yesterday in broad daylight in which three sneak thieves took part, all of whom were caught by Officers B. and J. McLelland inside of an hour after the robbery. The thieves visited the residences of Messrs. Harris, Billings, Rosenthal, Turpin, Brewer and other places, and carried away a quantity of valuable wearing apparel, umbrellas and other things, all of which have been recovered. It would be rather a difficult matter to have made out a case against the thieves had not one of the men arrested been found wearing one of the coats he had stolen. They had a hearing this afternoon before Justice Sparks, who committed them to jail to await the action of the superior court in default of $100 bail. The police are deserving of great credit due to their action in thus ridding the community of a bad lot of criminals.

The county commissioners met in special session to-day and appointed A. S. Austin justice of the peace for Olympia precinct, vice W. F. Keady elected county clerk, and J. E. Cannon as justice in Tumwater.

Reservations on any steamship line in the Atlantic service to Europe and England can be secured at Northern Pacific ticket office, No. 121 First street, corner Washington.

NEWS FROM WALLA WALLA.

What Money Does for Chinese Murderers—A Singular Accident.

WALLA WALLA, Dec. 2.—The Chinese murder cases which have attracted such marked attention here lately, and on which defendants were found guilty of murder in the second degree, are now before the court on a motion for arrest of judgment. It is claimed the indictment is defective in that no crime is alleged to have been committed. If the motion is granted sentence will not be passed and the prisoners will remain unsentenced in the custody of the sheriff to await a second indictment or further trial. In either event the defense will be twice in jeopardy. The case will go to the supreme court, whatever way the motion is decided. There seems to be plenty of money at the disposal of the defense, which is represented by John L. Sharpstein of this city, Hon. W. M. Clark appearing for the state.

Sunday A. J. Eal, driver for the Pacific Express company, drove to Olson's restaurant and in jumping from the wagon his pistol caught and was discharged. Notwithstanding his fright, Hull shouldered a sack of oysters which he carried into the restaurant and then drove to the express office and told of his close call when some one said perhaps he was shot after all. An examination showed that the pistol ball had passed through fleshy part of the right thigh, ranging upward and lodging somewhere in the back. He was taken to the hospital where a surgeon made an examination of the wound but was unable to locate the ball.

Major David S. Gordon, Second cavalry, has been promoted to be lieutenant colonel, vice Green, retired. Captain J. A. Lafferty, Sixth cavalry, has been promoted to be major and ordered to report to the commanding general of the Pacific division for duty.

During the absence of Colonel Clendenin the post here is in command of Major James Jackson.

NEWS FROM SALEM.

City Election—Argument in the Sandy Olds Case Completed.

SALEM, Dec. 2.—The city election to-day resulted in the election of councilmen as follows: First ward, John Gray; Second, Eber Lafort; Third, Ed Edes; Fourth, O. D. Hutton. All are republicans but the first named. There was no clearly defined issue, street improvement playing a good part.

T. L. Davidson, of Salem, and R. E. Bybee, of Portland, have been appointed by the governor as members of the state board of agriculture.

In the supreme court the case of the state of Oregon vs. Charles Olds, appellant, appeal from Multnomah, was argued and submitted.

John Frankie, an insane Prussian from Clackamas county, was placed in the asylum to-day. He is 73 years old. Alexander McNeal, a Scotchman, was also brought, coming from The Dalles.

Articles incorporating the Dorrance Lumber and Manufacturing Company were to-day filed with the secretary of state. D. W. Dorrance, J. M. Dorrance, C. A. Robert and W. N. Ladue are the incorporators, in the sum of $200,000. The principal office is at Salem.

Polk county's tax roll, filed to-day, shows a total taxable value of $2,666,514 and 970 polls.

The directors of the Thomas Kay Woolen Mill Company, of Salem, met this afternoon and decided to increase the capital stock from $50,000 to $75,000. The mill will be ready to start about the first of the year.

The Salem Building and Loan Association made a second loan to-night, the money going for thirteen months' interest in advance.

The rivalry between the Hoag and Orient, or Modoc, will result in a big race to test speed. Bets will be large.

W. G. Perkins, of Kansas, is here organizing a company to establish a creamery in Salem. He expects to utilize the product of 400 cows.

NEWS FROM TACOMA.

Elwood Evans Accepts—Puyallup Indians Vote Anti-Railroad.

TACOMA, Dec. 2.—Hon. Elwood Evans, who has been hesitating for a number of days about accepting the republican nomination for member of the legislature, to-night placed his favorable action in the hands of the committee. Mr. Evans is regarded as an especially valuable man at this time, as his experience in official life extends to nearly all kinds of official duty, including service on the original code commission. Probably no person in the territory is more familiar with the history of the political system of the Northwest.

The first annual meeting of the Tacoma Humane Society held this evening resulted in the appointment of a committee for the purpose of conferring with the members of the legislature to the end that a bill may be passed for the protection of dumb animals all over the state. The agent of the society, Dr. Culver, reported much good accomplished during the year. General J. W. Sprague tendered his resignation from the presidency of the society and was succeeded by L. I. Cook. F. H. Moore was elected secretary, H. B. Allen treasurer and a long list of vice presidents.

The council of reservation Indians to-day voted adversely to granting the Puyallup railroad the privilege of passing over their lands. This puts a quietus on the enterprise for a considerable time to come.

Anthony Cannon, one of the heaviest bankers of the state, and William H. Calkins, applicant for the position of United States district judge, both of Spokane Falls, and Charles B. Niblock of Seattle to-day incorporated the Snoqualmie Coal and Coke Company, with a capital stock of $1,000,000. It is understood that an important enterprise has been inaugurated. Niblock owns a rich coal mine near Seattle.

NEWS FROM SEATTLE.

Protests Against Scrip Filings—Faster Rail Time to Tacoma.

SEATTLE, Dec. 2.—Four protests and eight appeals in the matter of Valentine scrip filings were entered to-day at the land office by Gale & Day, who will file other appeals to-morrow and contests against both Valentine and Sioux half breed scrip filings also.

Fourteen Northern Pacific cars were forwarded to Snoqualmie to-day. They will be loaded with hops by the Hop Growers' Association and make part of a special train of twenty-five cars that will be started East to Baltimore the last of this week. The other eleven cars will be picked up at Puyallup.

The running time of trains between Seattle and Tacoma has been shortened twenty minutes, the run being made now in one hour and twenty-five minutes. Chair cars have also been put on the Puget Sound road.

NEWS FROM CORVALLIS.

Six Hundred Pupils at School—The Canal—Real Estate.

CORVALLIS, Dec. 2.—The pupils of the public school moved into the elegant new building to-day. A number of prominent visitors from abroad, including State Superintendent McElroy, attended the opening exercises. Including the students of the colleges in this city, there are about 600 scholars attending the schools of Corvallis.

William M. Hoag, general manager of the Oregon Pacific railroad, returned from San Francisco to-day.

Over $30,000 toward the building of the water canal is now assured. Work will undoubtedly be begun in the spring.

Important sales of real estate were made in the city. Two feet on Main street with one story brick building, at $10,000. Sales in real estate in the last few days foot up $40,000 and more.

UMATILLA INDIAN TROUBLES.

Chiefs En Route to Washington to See the President.

PENDLETON, Dec. 2.—Lieutenant Ely, in charge of the Umatilla Indian reservation, passed through the city to-day en route to Washington city. He has charge of the following Indian chiefs: Peo, Homily, Showaway, Young Chief and Wolf, and is also accompanied by John McBean, who is the interpreter. They go to Washington to talk with the president and to the department in regard to differences that have arisen in the matter of the allotment of land on the reservation regarding the allotment of land to the Indians in severalty.

THE IDAHO ABANDONED

Efforts to Float Her Fail—Stores and Upper Works Saved.

VICTORIA, Dec. 2.—Captain Angerstein has left the wrecked Idaho, efforts to save her having proved futile. As much of her stores and upper works as possible have been removed and the old steamer will be left to the mercy of the wind and waves.

Democrats Carry Albany.

ALBANY, Or., Dec. 2.—In the city election to-day the democrats elected J. L. Cowan mayor and John N. Hoffman marshal. The republicans elected the remainder of the ticket as follows: N. J. Henton, recorder; F. J. Kenton, treasurer; B. F. Tabler, W. L. Garrett and George W. Smith, councilmen.

WOE OF MINNEAPOLIS.

Ruins of the "Tribune" Building Still Hold Corpses.

WREATH FOR A HERO'S GRAVE

Affliction of the Newspaper Fraternity—Five People Burned to Death at Night in a Philadelphia Building.

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 2.—It has not yet been definitely ascertained whether or not there are more bodies in the ruins of the Tribune building, it being impossible to yet institute a thorough search. Who the men were who were seen to shoot themselves rather than suffer from the flames has not been decided. The women and children who went up into the building shortly before the fire broke out have turned up safe.

Measures for relief of the sufferers and families of the victims are actively under way. Newspaper men have frequent occasion to report the bereavement of others but it is seldom so many are taken from their own ranks at one time. Besides the Associated Press men Igoe and Miles, the list of dead includes Millman of the Tribune, and Pickett of the Pioneer Press, all good and true men. To-night the newspaper men of the two cities had meetings for the purpose of giving expression to their feelings in the matter, and during the day the ministers of Minneapolis, as well as the board of trade, adopted resolutions of sympathy.

A HERO'S DEATH

CINCINNATI, Dec. 2.—The Enquirer has this editorial:

If anything can mitigate the horrors of a holocaust such as that in Minneapolis Saturday night, it is such an example of heroic fidelity as was set by James Igoe, the unfortunate and undaunted operator, and well may bitter tears be shed by widow, children and friends because of the cruelness of his taking off, but they can always remember with pride that he died a brave man. His children need look nowhere else for a lesson in devotion to duty.

"He knew that beneath him the fire was raging. He 'broke' his colleague in New York to tell him the third story was on fire, adding 'and I'm on the seventh floor.' He knew the only way of escape was by a narrow winding stairway, yet he faltered only a moment. Then he gave the signal, 'Go ahead!' and—with a roaring furnace under—he sent quietly at the key and took 500 words. He stuck to his post to the very last, and then flashed over the wire his last message, 'Boys, I've got to stand you off. I'm the only one left on the floor. Everybody is gone and I can't stay any longer.' Poor Igoe had stayed too long. He had been faithful till death.

"Igoe and Ogle! Well may telegraphers feel their hearts swell with pride when these names are mentioned, Igoe the man, Ogle the woman, both operators, both martyrs to duty."

The Ogle referred to above is Mrs. Ogle, the heroic woman who remained at her post in the Johnstown telegraph office, warning other points in the valley below, until she was swept away herself by the great flood.

SIX PEOPLE BURNED TO DEATH.

A Brick Building in Philadelphia Destroyed in Early Morning.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 2.—A three-story brick building at the corner of Second and Huntington streets was burned early this morning. The basement and first floor were used by Gustave Gross as a bakery. The second floor was occupied as a dwelling by Gross, his wife and four children, and on the third floor dwelt Joseph Bitner with wife and six children.

The fire burned so rapidly that before the occupants could be aroused the following were burned to death: Mrs. Annie Bitner, aged 25; Ida Bitner, aged 4; George Bitner, aged 9 months; Gustave Gross, jr., aged 11; Bruno Gross, aged 5; Mrs. Minnie Gross; Hattie Gross. Joseph Bitner and John Ellanton were seriously injured. The other occupants escaped without serious hurt. Mrs. Minnie Gross died at the hospital at 5 o'clock this afternoon. The fact of her being in a delicate condition hastened her death.

Three Little Children Burned to Death.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Dec. 2.—At Franklin to-day three little children of Squire Dowdey, colored, were burned to death. They had been left alone in their home.

FAITH WORKS NO MIRACLES.

Two Sisters of a Holiness Band Victims of Gospel Quacks.

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 2.—Mrs. James Lythe, wife of a wealthy farmer of Livingston county, died at her home yesterday from lack of medical attendance. Mrs. Lythe was a believer in Christian science and relied for her recovery upon faith cure. Her sister, Mrs. White, a wealthy widow, is dying, and she, too, will allow no physician to see her, trusting, like her sister, to the faith cure.

Both of the ladies belonged to a 'holiness settlement,' here the leaders of which attended them during their illness. The holiness doctors will be prosecuted for malpractice.

TOM ROE ROLLS INTO CHICAGO

Trip from San Francisco on a Bicycle Made in Seventy Days.

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—Tom Roe, the bicyclist, arrived here to-day from San Francisco, having made the entire journey on a bicycle, beating the record of Stevens by 24 hours and 18 minutes. The journey began September 23 and ended this afternoon at 2:1. Stevens came over the Central route while Roe took the route through Southern California, Arizona, and along the line of the Atchison road.

A Stormy Voyage.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—The British ship Lornaca, Captain Giles, arrived this morning 128 days from London. She experienced heavy weather on the trip. October 11 she encountered a heavy westerly gale and all hands were ordered aloft to shorten sail. The ship was lurched badly and one of the sailors named Harry Lunsford was thrown from the main rigging into the pinnace and killed almost immediately.

The Wilmington Leaves a Coal Carrier.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—Notwithstanding reports to the contrary the steamer Wilmington is not to be retired from the coal trade. She will continue in the trade under command of Captain Hague, formerly of the steamer Santa Maria. The records of the local inspectors of steam vessels show that the Wilmington has been duly inspected and her boilers and hull found all right.

Killed by a Heavy Casting.

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 2.—Paul Wiegand, an employe at the Coronado Beach iron foundry, was instantly killed to-day by a casting, weighing 600 pounds falling on him. A number of men were lifting the casting by means of a derrick when the apparatus broke and the heavy weight fell on Wiegand, crushing his skull and breaking his neck.

Whaled by a Whaling Captain.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—The case of Captain Merrill, charged with beating a seaman on board the whaling bark William Lewis from Alaska, was dismissed by United States Commissioner Sawyer this morning. After hearing the testimony the commissioner concluded the charge was not substantiated.

Thrown From a Car and Killed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—Daniel McCarthy, a carpenter in the employ of the Southern Pacific Company, was thrown from the top of a boxcar at Niles Saturday by bumping of the train while coupling. He was taken to a hospital, where it was found that his skull was fractured. He died yesterday.

Their Valises Full of Diamonds.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 2.—To-day two men representing themselves as traveling salesmen for Stern & Stern, jewelers, who recently failed in New York city, were found at a hotel loading up $30,000 worth of jewelry to move it to Kentucky. The sheriff took charge of the entire lot.

A SERIOUS QUARREL.

Two Friends Hammer Each Other Over the Head With Bottles Early This Morning.

At 3 o'clock this morning Officers James and Belcher brought two men giving the names of Jack Maher and Mike Dooney into the police station. The men bore shocking appearances, especially the former, whose coat, vest and shirt were literally soaked with blood.

The two men who have always been friends became involved in a dispute in Martin Curry's saloon on First street between E and F. Words led to blows, and finally two men rushed behind the bar and grabbing bottles were beating each other over the head when the officers rushed in and arrested them.

Maher is the most seriously wounded. He has a bad cut some three inches in length, over the left ear, from which the blood was flowing freely when the reporter left. Although physicians had been telephoned for none had arrived at 3:15 o'clock and therefore it is impossible to state how badly injured the men are. Dooney's wounds are not dangerous, however.

Small Change at the South.

Philadelphia Letter.

The United States mint is running its machinery from 12 o'clock Monday morning to midnight on Saturday, and yet is entirely unable to supply the demand for pennies. The mint is nearly two months behind in its orders, that is to say, you have to deposit your money for pennies at the mint in Philadelphia at least two months before you get them, and as the demand is daily increasing, and the supply cannot increase, it is reasonable to expect that within six months pennies will be scarce everywhere. There is an appropriation made every year for the delivery free by Adams express of the pennies in multiples of $20 to all parts of the United States. The pennies are rapidly being taken from all over the United States and sent to the southwest portion of the country, where the demand is so rapidly increasing, the result of that is, that the large cities cannot get all the pennies they wish to use.

Hard on Franklin.

Boston Transcript.

To Franklin and "Poor Richard" is due the sordid element of American nature that, as much as its enterprise and ingenuity, distinguishes it. He dinned maxims of parsimony into the ears of the American people so persistently and in such a wonderfully forcible way that he succeeded in ingraining the thought of the American people with an eminently material philosophy, the moral of which was save, save for a rainy day. By dint of everlasting repetition of the vision of the rainy day that must be laid up for, he has succeeded in taking all the sunshine out of the days that are not rainy for hundreds of thousands of people.

DRS. DARRIN CAN BE FOUND

At the Washington Building, Corner Fourth and Washington Streets—Another Wonderful Cure.

A Remarkable Cure of Lung Trouble.

Mr. Editor, Dear Sir: About two years ago I was stricken down with paralysis, and confined to my bed for six months. About that time my lungs and liver became congested, and indigestion followed. My lungs became diseased, with a heavy cough, and I gradually failed in health. Four months ago I called on Dr. Darrin for treatment. He has so far restored me to health in all respects, that I am able to be around, and I have not the slightest doubt of an absolute cure. I reside at Milwaukie, Or., and my son can be seen at the Esmond hotel to vouch for this statement. J. J. BLAIR.

Drs. Darrin's New Place of Business.

Drs. Darrin can be consulted free at the Washington building, corner of Washington and Fourth streets, Portland. Rooms 16, 17, 22 and 23, second floor. Ask the elevator boy for room 16. Office hours from 10 to 4 o'clock daily; evenings, 7 to 8; Sundays, 10 to 12. All curable chronic diseases, loss of manhood, blood taints, syphilis, gleet, gonorrhœa, stricture, spermatorrhœa, seminal weakness, or loss of desire of sexual power, in men or woman, catarrh and deafness, are confidentially and successfully treated. Cures of private diseases guaranteed, and never published in the papers. Most cases can receive home treatment after a visit to the doctors' office. Inquiries answered and circulars sent free. (Parties writing will please mention paper.)

SHERIFF'S SALE

HOLLADAY PROPERTY.

STATE of Oregon, County of Multnomah, SS.—By virtue of a decree issued out of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the county of Multnomah, to me directed, wherein Ben Holladay is plaintiff and Joseph Holladay defendant, for the sum of $324,901 82-100 judgment and the further sum of interest on $324,901 82-100 at the rate of 6 per cent per annum from July, 1889; also, the further sum of $206 15-100, costs and accruing costs, I duly levied upon the following described real property of Joseph Holladay: Lots No. one (1), seven (7) and eight (8), in block 47, in the city of Portland; No. one (1), four (4), six (6), seven (7), eight (8), in block twenty-three addition to the city of Portland, all of said real property being situate in county and State of Oregon. Also, the following described personal property: 675 shares of the capital stock of the Willamette Steam Mills Lumbering Company; 1150 shares of the capital stock of the Oregon Transfer Company. Now, therefore, pursuance of said decree and execution, I will, on Monday, the 23d day of December, 1889, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M., at the Courthouse door, in said county, sell, subject to redemption, all of the above described real property, also the above described shares of stock, at public auction, to the highest bidder, or so much thereof as will satisfy said decree and execution, interest and costs.

November 22d, 1889.

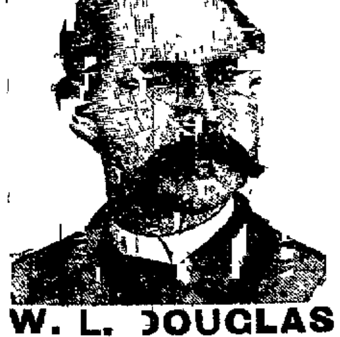
CAUTION

W. L. DOUGLAS' name and the price are stamped on the bottom of all shoes advertised by him before leaving his factory; this protects the wearer against high prices and inferior goods. If your dealer does not keep the style or kind you want, or offers to sell you shoes without W. L. Douglas' name and price stamped on them, and says they are just as good, do not be deceived thereby, but send direct to the factory, for you can get what you want by return mail postage paid. Dealers make more profit on unknown shoes that are not warranted by anybody; therefore do not be induced to buy shoes that have no reputation. Buy only those that have W. L. Douglas' name and the price stamped on the bottom and you are sure to get full value for your money. Thousands of dollars are saved annually in this country by the wearers of W. L. Douglas' Shoes. In ordering by mail state whether you want Congress, Button or Lace, London cap toe, plain French toe, or narrow cap toe, and be sure to give size and width you wear. I can fit any foot that is not deformed, as my shoes are made in a great variety of widths, sizes and half sizes. I guarantee a fit, prompt delivery and perfect satisfaction or money refunded upon return of shoes in good condition. W. L. DOUGLAS, Brockton, Mass.



W. L. DOUGLAS

$3 SHOE FOR GENTLEMEN.

$3 SHOE FOR LADIES.

W. L. DOUGLAS $3 SHOE GENTLEMEN.

Is a fine seamless calf shoe, with Dongola tops and Oak Leather bottoms. They are made in Congress, Button and Lace on London Cap Toe, Narrow Cap Toe, and Plain French Toe Lasts, in sizes from 5 to 11, including half sizes and in all widths. If you have been paying from $5 to $6 for shoes of this quality do not do so longer. One pair will wear as long as two pairs of common shoes sold by dealers that are not warranted by the manufacturer.

Our claims for this shoe over all other $3 shoes advertised, are:

1st. It contains better material.
2d. It is more stylish, better fitting and durable.
3d. It gives better general satisfaction.
4th. It costs more money to make.
5th. It saves more money for the consumer.
6th. It is sold by more dealers throughout the U. S.
7th. Its great success is due to merit.
8th. It cannot be duplicated by any other manufacturer.
9th. It is the best in the world, and has a larger demand than any other $3 shoe advertised.

$5,000 will be paid to any person who will prove the above statements to be untrue. Following Lines will be found to be of the Same Quality of Excellence:

$5.00 SHOE GENUINE HAND-SEWED, which takes the place of custom work that cost from $7 to $9.
$4.00 SHOE THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY HAND-SEWED WELT $4 SHOE. Equals custom made shoes costing from $6 to $8.
$3.50 SHOE FOR POLICEMEN. Railroad Men and Letter Carriers all wear them. Smooth inside as a hand-sewed shoe. No tacks or wax thread to hurt the feet.
$2.50 SHOE IS UNEXCELLED FOR HEAVY WEAR. Best calf shoe for the price.
$2.25 SHOE WORKINGMAN'S. Is the best in the world for rough wear; one pair ought to wear a man a year.
$2.00 SHOE IS EQUAL TO SHOES THAT COST FROM $3 TO $3.50. One pair will wear longer than any shoe ever sold at the price.
$2.00 SHOE FOR BOYS is the best School Shoe in the world.
$1.75 SHOE YOUTH'S SCHOOL, gives the small Boys a chance to wear the best shoes in the world.

All made in Congress, Button and Lace.

ALBANY

[illegible]

Twenty-six regular trains arrive and depart from Albany daily, not including construction trains and extra freights.

Its shipping advantages are unequaled, as it is the junction of two great transcontinental lines, the Oregon Pacific and the Southern Pacific, and it will also be the terminus of the Albany & Astoria railroad, now in course of construction.

Over one thousand men are now employed upon the extension of the Oregon Pacific railroad from Albany eastward, and, with the opening of spring, this number will be increased to over five thousand.

Albany is the furnishing point for the Santiam gold and silver mines, in which next year will be employed 1000 men.

Albany is the county seat of Linn county, acknowledged and conceded to be the best lands in Oregon for the production of grain, grass and fruits. IT HAS NEVER BEEN BOOMED, its growth and progress depending alone on merit, has been steady and enduring.

Its unexcelled water power places it in the lead of all as a manufacturing center. Albany has given more assistance to outside enterprises than all other cities in Oregon combined.

Twelve additions have been made to Albany and over five hundred buildings erected during the past year.

Albany has a street railway system and the most complete electric light works in the state, its dynamos furnishing more lights than all the other cities of the valley combined.

Look at this array of improvements for the year 1890: With a population of over 10,000 there will be built at Albany large smelting works by Eastern capitalists, a 4-story brick hotel; a 3-story brick block, to be occupied by railroad offices; largest hospital in the state, to be erected by the Sisters of Charity from Emmitsburg, Md.; a paper factory, gas works and numerous other smaller institutions necessitating an expenditure of nearly $1,000,000.

Besides these, the car and machine shops, round house and other buildings for the western division of the Oregon Pacific Railroad Company will be erected here.

The largest and best woolen mills in the state are being built, and the machinery, which is the latest improved, will be started about Jan. 1. Albany has 32 manufacturing establishments, which does not include the Grant's Pass sash and door factory, with a capital stock of $150,000, soon to be removed here.

For next season plans are already being drawn for the erection of thirteen fine brick blocks, which will include some of the finest buildings in the state.

The records will show that over one million dollars of real estate transfers have been made in Albany within the past ninety days, equal to all other Willamette Valley cities combined.

Nearly one-half million dollars of real estate have been purchased by New York Capitalists, who are also interested in the Oregon Pacific Railroad.

Albany has the finest banks, has numerous and good schools, two kindergartens, thirteen churches, substantial public buildings, splendid water works, supplying water direct from the Cascade Mountains, excellent sewerage, a social and hospitable people, rail and water communication with the markets of the entire world and is rapidly increasing in wealth and population.

If you want a home or desire to make a safe investment purchase in Albany. Investments are safe and returns are sure.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Freight room scarcer, and rates on wheat by steamer to Liverpool have advanced to 5s per bushel.

Wheat—Market opened quiet and irregular; outside orders were not very plentiful, and quotations were made by local operators. Opened—83¼c December, 85c January, 89¼c May. Noon—December alone showed strength advancing to 83⅝c, while January and May were ⅛c lower, at 84⅞c and 89⅛c respectively. Closed firm at slightly improved prices; 83¾c December, 85⅛c January, 86¼c February, 89¼c May.

REVIEW OF THE WHEAT MARKET.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Exports of wheat (including flour) from both coasts show a further decrease last week; being 1,708,732 bushels. Flour is off 5@15c per barrel on heavy receipts and offerings. Wheat at the close of the inland water navigation has also been hurried forward, but so light is the export demand that the cereal is ⅞@1c lower. The present outlook for the current cereal year is not favorable for exports of wheat (including flour) to equal those of 1888-89, when they were 90,000,000 bushels. The crop of 1889 promises an export surplus this cereal year of 118,000,000.

NEW YORK MERCHANDISE MARKETS.

Cargoes off coast, nothing offering.

Mark Lane—English and foreign wheat quiet but steady; English and American flour quiet.

LIVERPOOL, Dec. 2—Stocks in Liverpool: Wheat, 880,000 to 400,000 quarters; maize, 100,000 to 110,000 quarters; flour, 160,000 to 170,000 bbls. Wheat—Spot market opened firm, demand improving; No. 1 California, 7s 4d; No. 2 California, 7s 1d per cental.

PARIS, Dec. 2—Spot wheat and flour steady; French country markets generally dearer.

LIVERPOOL GRAIN MARKET.

LIVERPOOL, Dec. 2.—Wheat — Firm: demand poor; holders offer sparingly; California No. 1, 17s 4d per cental.

Corn—Firm; demand fair; new mixed Western, 4s 1¾d per cental.

MARK LANE REVIEW.

LONDON, Dec. 2.—The Mark Lane Express says: Flour is in sellers' favor and foreign wheats are quiet. New Australian crop is speculatively offered at 35s 6d per quarter. Reports from LaPlate and Chili promise a good crop. Corn is firm. At to-day's market wheats and flours were fairly active and prices stiffened. Grinding barley, oats and rye are 6d dearer. Flat corn advanced 9d and round 3d.

Tottering to Its Base.

Health totters to its very foundations when vigor begins to wane. To check its loss, to repair the general damage to the constitution which this inflicts, impaired digestion must be rendered active, the conversion of food into blood must be facilitated. No tonic on earth can accomplish this so effectually as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters a remedy also for malaria, constipation and biliousness.

What $1.75 . . .

. . . Will Do.

Four hundred and thirty thousand (430,000) persons have been secured who have each subscribed $1.75 for THE YOUTH'S COMPANION.

This money is used by the Publishers in preparing, every seven days, the finest paper that money can produce, one copy of which is sent regularly once a week for one year to every person who subscribes $1.75, before January 1, 1890.

The publishers have secured some of the greatest living authors, statesmen, scientists, explorers, generals, inventors, and distinguished men as regular contributors.

They are names which awaken great interest. Every word uttered by such men has meaning and is full of import.

In many instances, they could never have been secured as contributors, were it not for the far-reaching influence which is given to their words by enormous circulation.

Every one who sends to THE YOUTH'S COMPANION, 41 Temple Place, Boston, will receive a prospectus containing the Full Announcements for 1890. It is a veritable feast in 52 courses.

DR. A. L. COLE

THIS well-known and reliable specialist treats private, chronic and nervous diseases, including general debility and impotence: also Blood and Skin diseases which result in sores and swellings. He treats successfully the effects of secret vices, so frequent in the youth of both sexes, and which, left unchecked, cause loss of memory and vitality, softening of the brain and spine, heart disease and consumption, resulting in a morbid despondency, if not insanity. He restores lost vigor and manly power, removes deformities and restores the organs to health. He also cures diseases of women, and promotes healthy activity when it has been lost or perverted. Dr. Cole is a graduate of the New York Homeo Medical College; diploma in office. As a surgeon he is unexcelled. His surgical instruments and appliances are numerous and costly. His French method of treating private diseases and lost manhood far excels all others. His Hoemorpasia apparatus, for the cure of disease without medicine, is the only one in Portland. Call and see it.

Dr. Cole will allow you to examine your urine under his powerful microscope. If you are losing semen you can there detect it by seeing the live spermatozoa.

PORTLAND, TUESDAY DEC. 3

Ellensburgh is building a new opera house 60x120 feet, three stories high, with a fifty-foot stage.

The farmers in Garfield county have had sufficient rain to do their fall plowing and seeding, while in Columbia and Walla Walla counties scarcely a furrow has been turned.

Missoula Gazette: The work of laying track on the Cœur d'Alene cut-off of the Northern Pacific is being pushed ahead at the rate of one mile and a half per day. It is expected that the track will be laid to Frenchtown by December 5.

All the Northern Pacific surveying parties, which started towards the Montana side, have returned to Wallace for the winter. Some of them will probably be ordered up Nine Mile, as it is the intention to complete this line as far as possible this winter.

Among the enterprises now almost assured to Newport in the next few months are a saw and planing mill, a woolen mill, a teacher's institute and a telephone line. Water works and electric lights follow [illegible] improvements. Get the ball to rolling, and it will grow fast.

About two years ago the city council of Tacoma passed an ordinance that shade trees should be planted by the city at not to exceed an expense of $1000 per year. To date less than $50 has been so spent. While Tacoma has forests at her doors, she has no trees in her streets.

Shoshone, Idaho, is in the center of the Snake valley, and is surrounded with a million acres of fertile lands, valuable if irrigated. There is now a large area of excellent winter range for stock, and the future growth of this valley will be rapid when the Snake river canals are once begun.

The Hood River Glacier says: The Dalles is threatened with a wood famine, owing to the impossibility to get boats to haul the supply. Soft wood is selling at $4.50 per cord, and is not plentiful at that. It might be a good plan for some of our wood dealers to visit The Dalles and arrange for supplying the local dealers there.

Last week the rains raised many of the streams tributary to the Rogue river to a higher level than they attained all last winter, and the river itself enjoyed much of a boom. The rise did considerable damage to the mill enterprise of I. H. Rowe, of [illegible], carrying out a large portion of the dam and causing the loss of many logs.

The Yaquina Republican says: A subsidy of from $100,000 to $150,000 can be raised along the proposed line of railroad from Newport to Salem without much trouble. We believe that the Southern Pacific company could be induced to take hold of this project for the above subsidy. It would give them a valuable outlet to the coast.

Weston has now a system of water works and is supplied with as pure water as can be found in Umatilla county. The water is brought direct from the Blue mountains and its pressure is derived from a large cistern on the hill east of town, and from there runs into the water mains with sixty pounds pressure on Main street and much greater pressure lower down.

There are about four inches of snow on a level in the Wood river valley below Deer creek, and six to ten inches above, and more is falling. Winter has evidently begun in that section. Some of the farmers are not ready, many have not deli[illegible], but as a rule people are glad to see the snow, because it is a promise of sufficient moisture next summer for mines, mills and ranches.

C. A. Jones, a "cruiser," otherwise a man who works at the business of looking for timber claims for purchasers, while out cruising last Tuesday, found the skeleton of a man lying beside a large log near the bank of the north fork of the Stellaguamish river, where it runs through township 1, range 6 east, about sixty-five miles east of Tacoma. Two other men were with Jones at the time. It is believed that the skeleton was that of one of three men who were lost in the woods last summer or who went out to look for claims and were never heard of after.

The Elmore (Idaho) Bulletin says: That owing to the small expense attached to the holding of the district court last summer and the economic manner in which the "county dads" have conducted Elmore affairs she will, during the next January, not only pay every outstanding warrant, but will have a surplus of $13,000 or more remaining in the hands of the county treasurer. Owing to this fact and in accordance with law the county commissioners raised the county treasurer's bond to $[illegible]000, whereupon he, thinking the act a personal drive at him, resigned.

Samuel Sterling, an old and well-known miner in Southern Oregon, has struck rich placer mines on the headwaters of the Coquille. He reports having also found a very rich quartz ledge in the same vicinity. The new discoveries lately made by Mr. Sterling are near the old "Johnson Diggings," at one time famous in a political squabble in Oregon, and located near the adjoining corners of Coos, Curry, Douglas and Josephine counties. Mr. Sterling will be remembered as the discoverer of the Sterling mines in Jackson county away back in the 50s. The new mines can be reached by wagon road to Myrtle Point, from which place there is only a trail.

The Jacksonville Democratic Times says that District Attorney Hamilton of the Second district writes Governor Pennoyer that it is his purpose to prosecute infractions of the law against preventing the free ascent of salmon up the streams of this state. At Rogue river the law is most conspicuously and defiantly set at naught by one, too, who sets up the insolent claim that he owns Rogue river and the fishes that inhabit it. An exchange says that R. D. Hume, the party in question, clears $[illegible]0,000 annually from his fishing operations at the mouth of Rogue river and invests all his surplus accumulations in permanent improvements in California.

The Athenaean Press says: A pork packery would be a blessing to this community as well as a profitable industry to the owners of such an establishment. A granger was in Athena this week with 100 head of marketable hogs, and we learn that because of the inability of keeping pork, that our local buyers could not afford to buy them all. Pork men sell their pork for 6½ cents dressed and 4½ on foot. This year during harvest time cured pork sold all the way from 15 to 20 and even 25 cents per pound. There is no use in our home market being supplied with Eastern meat when the hog can be raised as cheaply here if not cheaper than in the East.

Her Sweet Smile Haunts Me Still.

I had not seen her for twenty years. Now she was a well preserved matron with the same sweet smile on her face and a set of splendid teeth thanks to SOZODONT. Her daughters call her blessed because she brought them up properly.

Concerning Diamonds.

"Come to a line among the [illegible] of the [illegible] upon the [illegible] of a bootblack. Mr. J. M. Miles, of Mansfield, Mass., says: "Every box of Dr. Tutt's Liver Pills is worth more to me than the same sized diamond. True to the letter, as every one to know. These pills are an invaluable adjunct to every one. Never be without them. They cure most of the disorders incident to the human system."

GLADSTONE A RADICAL

He Would Give Home Rule to All Parts of Great Britain.

LONDON, Dec. 2.—A meeting of the Liberal Federation began at Manchester to-day. Gladstone delivered an address. He said the local government bill did not meet the legitimate demands of the country. He advocated granting county councils powers of taxation, control of the police and the liquor traffic, care of the poor, power to deal with the question of ground rents and form district councils. He would possibly go further and establish the parish principle of government, and thus convey to the rural population the first elements of their public education and create a sense of public duty, which is the highest aim of the statesman.

Provisions for direct Scottish and Welsh home rule, Gladstone said, must be dealt with by future parliaments.

He referred to his approaching eightieth birthday and said it was not probable he should have a direct interest in many future great reforms. Referring to the recent insurrection in Crete and Armenia he said it was difficult to deal with Turkey. He trusted the government would not use honeyed words in matters involving property, liberty, life and female honor. The nineteenth century would not admit apologies and palliations for cruelties and wickedness. Gladstone predicted a liberal victory at the next election for members of parliament.

LOVE-LETTERS TO GOV. HILL

A Chicago Matrimonial Broker Puts Him on the Eligible List

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Governor Hill has been made the victim of a practical joke by a Chicago man. Recently it has been noticed that the governor's mail was unusually large and that most of the letters were from the West and addressed in a feminine hand. The governor looked carefully at all the letters each day, and after a glance would tear them up. The private secretary did not touch them, thinking they were sacred epistles to the bachelor governor.

At last, however, the secret has come out. A Chicago matrimonial agent had put bachelor David on his list and sent his name to hundreds of Western maids and widows who have been showering perfumed epistles of love upon the ambitious governor.

LOVE AND GRAND LARCENY.

An Alleged Thief Marries the Prosecutor's Daughter in Court

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Dec. 2.—A preliminary trial to-day before a justice's court, in which J. Ortes was charged with grand larceny, had a peculiar and unexpected ending. Defendant was accused by Martin Trainor of stealing his daughter's clothing from his country residence. Ida Trainer, the daughter, aged 17, testified that she had given Ortes the clothing, having intended to elope with him, because her father had refused his consent to their marriage. The trial lasted nearly all day, and ended with the judge dismissing the grand larceny case and pronouncing them husband and wife.

Army Officer Signs the Pledge.

DENVER, Dec. 2.—A Santa Fe, N. M., special to the Republican says: An order came from the war department to-day suspending the general court martial called by Colonel Grierson, department commander, for to-morrow for the trial of charges against Captain Morris C. Wessels, Twenty-fourth infantry, now stationed at Fort Grant, Ariz. Captain Wessels was charged with violating the articles of war relating to drunkenness. Saturday afternoon he appeared before Captain Baily, acting judge advocate at Fort Marcy, and made a satisfactory explanation of his conduct, at the same time taking a pledge to refrain from intoxicants for a period of five years. Upon this showing the war department issued the order. Wessels is a son of General Wessels, U. S. A., retired.

Killed at Virginia City.

VIRGINIA, Nev., Dec. 2.—Henry Gularte was killed in the Virginia & Truckee railroad yard this evening. He was riding on two cars loaded with lumber on a side-track returning to the C. & C. shaft. When passing through a tunnel he removed a scantling sticking over the top of the lumber to hold it in place. It is supposed the scantling struck the top of the tunnel and knocked Gularte off. When found he was lying on the track dead, one car having passed over the upper part of his body, crushing it into a shapeless mass and nearly severing the head from the trunk.

A Very Bold Forgery.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—It has developed that a clever forgery was committed on the California Title Insurance and Trust Company last week. A man walked into the office and asked for a duplicate of a check for $1700 given by the company on the Anglo-California bank last September to Henry Nelson, which was collected at the time. The clerk gave the man a duplicate, and he collected the money after forging Nelson's indorsement. The parties have no clue to the individual.

A Veteran and Vagabond Dead.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—Henry H. Hall, about 50 years of age, was found dead in a building undergoing repairs on Chestnut street this morning. He had been going thither for shelter for some time. A companion in misfortune who had been sleeping by his side in the building found him dead when he arose this morning. Hall has always claimed he was a member of the Second Michigan regiment during the war.

Suicide of a Young Drunkard.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Frank MacArthur, a young lawyer of New York city, committed suicide by jumping from a limited express on the Pennsylvania road between Baltimore and Washington. Judge MacArthur was traveling with his son, who had been somewhat dissipated lately and was bringing him to his home in Washington in hopes of reforming him. Judge MacArthur is a strong and personal friend of Senator Dolph.

Rights of a Scalped Ticket Passenger.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—The suit of Charles Frankenthal against the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, to recover $50,000 damages for being ejected from a train at Auburn because his handwriting didn't seem to correspond with that alleged to be his on a ticket from Chicago which he held, resulted this afternoon in the jury awarding him $550.

Shipment of Opium Through America.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—Twenty-six five-tael boxes of prepared opium were found secreted on the steamship Gaelic to-day. Twenty boxes belonged to a Chinese on the way to Guayaquil, South America, who claimed he had a right to ship the drug so long as he made no attempt to land it here. A decision is awaited from Washington.

British Capitalists Buying Stove Works.

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—It is announced that lawyer Carbin, of this city, has about completed a deal whereby the great plant of the Michigan Stove Company of Detroit, may pass into the hands of an English syndicate. The company controls, besides its factories in Detroit, establishments in New York and Buffalo.

Five People Burned to Death.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 2.—The bakery of Gustave Cress was burned this morning. His wife and four children were burned to death. Another family, consisting of a man (name not learned), wife and child, were rescued with difficulty and removed to the hospital. They are said to be in a precarious condition.

The Charleston Will Go to Asia.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—The bills for final payments for the new cruiser Charleston have been approved and arrangements are now being made to put her in commission. She will be the flag ship of the Asiatic or Pacific station, likely the former, and will probably make her first cruise in the East Indies.

A Sneak Thief Steals $2100.

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 2.—Thieves entered the home of C. C. Merrill yesterday and stole a valise containing $100 in coin, a promissory note worth $500, and bank receipts representing $1500. None of the papers, however, negotiable.

FREQUENTLY accidents occur in the household which cause burns, cuts, sprains and bruises; for use in such cases Dr. J. H. McLean's Volcanic Oil Liniment has for many years been the constant favorite family remedy.

AND THE SACK BURST.—Robert Harrison, of the First National bank, while on his way to the express office with $10,000 in gold in a sack yesterday, was thrown into a state of nervous prostration by the sack bursting in front of the Crystal Palace saloon. There were only three men present and Robert soon had his coin in a place of safety, but he was much worried for fear one of the three men was a reporter and on account of his mishap would get into THE OREGONIAN.

IT WAS RATHER LIVELY.—Third street presented an animated appearance yesterday when the bands and troupes of the two rival variety theaters on their promenade passed. A car horse was so frightened that he could not do anything but jump up and down, and the driver was about as badly scared. It only needed the Salvation army to round out the affair.

IN BOOK FORM.—The committee on ways and means have about come to the conclusion to advertise for bids for printing the codified charter and ordinances. They will make a book of about 700 pages. There is a constant demand from towns throughout the state for copies of the Portland charter and ordinances, and it is about time the matter was attended to.

HE HAD HAD ENOUGH.—A tall Chinaman named Lin, who was cook on the Idaho, arrived here yesterday. He has been running on Alaska steamers for a long time and has been wrecked more than once, but his last adventure has let him out. "I want no more run on rocks," he said. "I go cannery by-m'by; cook fish. No more go on steamer."

PROFESSOR COCK wishes us to caution the public against employing teachers who claim to be pupils of the Institute, without fully informing themselves of the truth of the statement: as in several cases the claim has been made by persons who have never attended this school, thereby injurying its reputation.

No. 47—GEORGE M. WILLARD, of Seattle, manager for Staver & Walker, drew his lot in Hyde Park Lot Club last night. Clubs 1 and 2 will draw next Monday night at 8 o'clock. Join now and secure your membership in club 2, which is almost full. Clune, Rees & Co., 110 Second street.

A SLIGHT DIFFERENCE.—Kid gloves can be sold all the way from 25 cents to $1. It all depends on the quality. The 75c gloves of J. Selling & Co are acknowledged to be worth $1. At a special sale to-morrow they will be offered at 50 cents per pair. Not more than three pairs to one person.

WORKS LIKE A CHARM.—The plan of having people call at the water committee's office and pay their bills, instead of sending out collectors, works like a charm, and the money runs into the office during the first days of the month like water from a street hydrant.

GRAND ENTERTAINMENT.—In the Tabernacle, Tenth and Morrison streets, Friday evening, December 6th. Dramatic reading by Miss Hibbard Churchill, of Boston, assisted by S. Freidenrich, pianist, and Madam Geisler, violinist. Admission 50 cents.

EVERYBODY should go to the Tabernacle, Tenth and Morrison streets, Friday evening. Admission only 50 cents. Given by the Y. M. C. A.

Kissing in Oregon.

The Portland girl bows her stately head,
And she fixes her stylish lips
In a firm hard way, and then lets go
In spasmodic little snips.

The Salem girl removeth her specs,
And freezeth her face with a smile,
Then she sticks out her lips like an open book
And she cheweth her wax meanwhile.

The Astoria girl says not a word,
And you'd think her rather tame
With her practical views of the matter in hand,
But she gets there just the same.

The Albany girl gets a grip on herself
As she carefully takes off her hat,
Then she grabs up her prize in a frenzied way
Like a terrier shaking a rat.

The Walla Walla girl, the pride of the town,
In her clinging and soulful way,
Absorbs it all with a yearnful yearn
As big as a bale of hay.

The Spokane girl, so gentle and sweet,
Lets her lips meet the coming kiss
With a rapturous warmth, as her youthful soul
Floats away on the seas of bliss.

But, a damsel afflicted with bad breath,
Notwithstanding that love hath thrilled her,
Shouldn't kiss until her system is purified
By that blood cleansing tonic Bludbilder.

Nor the maiden whose face is blotched and blurred
By blood or skin ills, can hope
To bloom with face fair or winning air
Without using Cole's Carbolisoap.

And though Portland girls with sea-blue eyes,
Ebony hair and graces suave
Can capture hearts, they cannot them keep
Without using Cole's Carbolisalve.

THE LATEST OUT.

A daily through car service has been established, by the Chicago, Union Pacific & Northwestern line between Portland and Chicago via Council Bluffs, thus offering to the public facilities not given by any other line. "The Limited Fast Mail," which runs daily between the above points, carries the Overland Fast Mail, a limited number of first-class passengers without extra charge, and is composed of Pullman vestibuled sleepers and Pullman dining-cars, Portland to Chicago via Council Bluffs.

This is another indication that the Union Pacific is desirous of meeting the requirements of the people. For information in regard to this and other trains on this line, apply to George S. Taylor, Union ticket office, corner First and Oak streets, or A. L. Maxwell, general passenger and ticket agent, Portland, Oregon.

WHO WINS THE RACE?

Well, you can safely bet that Oregon will do the champions of England, America, France and Albina up in the Mechanics' pavilion race this week. The struggle between Merrill, Morgan, Fabing, Knapp and others will be the sporting event of the season. Polite attention to all. Bring the ladies.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

On and after December 1, by special request of his patrons and friends, Mr. Freimann has consented to reopen his elegant establishment to the public at night, and has made extensive improvements and alterations in his kitchen, so as to be able to make a specialty of oysters (theater parties take notice), and has imported a first-class oyster cook for that purpose.

VISITORS ATTENTION!

An elegant breakfast at Freimann's; a magnificent lunch at Freimann's annex and a supper at Freimann's cafe that would do credit to Delmonicos' of New York. Remember that Freimann is the best and most successful caterer on the coast. He has the finest restaurant west of Chicago.

Fast Time.

The Northern Pacific Railroad Vestibule Dining and Sleeping Car Line, daily service to St. Paul, Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago. No change of cars and twenty-five miles the shortest route to Chicago. Tourist sleeping cars through, placing passengers in the Union depot, Chicago, seven hours and thirty-six minutes ahead of other lines. Passenger and ticket office, No. 121 First street, corner Washington.

BRIEF MENTION.

S. Tomlinson has a lot of fine horses for sale at Magoon Bros.', corner Third and Madison.

"The Limited Fast Mail"
Leaves Portland daily at 7 A. M. via the Union Pacific railway, with through sleepers and dining cars. Time to Chicago, only seventy hours. Call at Union Ticket office, 81 First street for tickets and berths. George S. Taylor, city ticket agent.

Elegant new dining-cars, Pullman palace and free family sleeping-cars run through on express trains to Denver, Omaha, Council Bluffs and Kansas City, via Oregon Short Line. Union ticket office, 81 First street, corner Oak.

Through Pullman vestibuled sleepers and dining cars; also latest improved tourist sleepers through to the East via Northern Pacific railroad. Office, No. 121 First street, corner Washington.

For the benefit of the traveling public breakfast will be served in the magnificent Pullman dining cars now run on the Union Pacific fast mail train leaving Portland at 7 A. M. immediately after the departure of the train.

THE CALIGRAPH TYPEWRITER—Stands ahead. Machines sold on installments; rented and repaired. Typewriter supplies of all kinds. Send for catalogues. Wiley B. Allen & Co., 211 First street, Portland, Or.

Take "the limited fast mail" via Union Pacific railway for all points East, leaving Portland at 7 A. M. daily; through sleeper and dining cars. Time to Chicago, only seventy hours.

The new hotel, when completed, will fill a long felt want in Portland, but it will not set a bit better table than does the New York.

WINDOM'S SILVER SCHEME.

Secretary Windom has gained a reputation as a very able financier. His new silver scheme has the merit of originality, since it is unlike any other yet submitted. But it presents problems which will be received with caution and doubt; and there will be various views as to its destined success or failure.

It must be acknowledged frankly that the predictions made by the opponents of remonetization of silver ten years ago have not been fulfilled. There are as yet no sure indications that, under the present system of restricted coinage silver is destined to displace gold. The business of the country is absorbing more currency than it was supposed it could, and though the silver dollars do not circulate to any great extent, the silver certificates issued on these dollars circulate largely, on an even basis with other paper money and with gold itself.

Secretary Windom now proposes an issue of notes or certificates based on silver bullion at the market value at the date of issue. There is to be no limit to issue of the notes, that is, the treasury is to take all silver bullion that may be offered and issue notes against it. Though these notes are not to be a legal tender it is believed they will circulate freely with other currency as do the notes of national banks which lack the legal tender quality. If made full legal tender they would probably precipitate all transactions to the silver basis within a short time, since there would be no limit to their issue but the discretion of the secretary of the treasury, and this could not be safely trusted in a matter of such magnitude and importance. The provision that the silver notes might be redeemed either in silver bullion at the market price, or in gold coin at the option of the treasury, would keep up a connection or relation between silver and gold and at the same time would discourage presentation of certificates for redemption of which silver bullion would probably be offered.

The plan is an ingenious one and undoubtedly will receive close examination in congress and throughout the country. The repeated failures of prediction in the matter of silver will produce a good deal of hesitation and check the tendency to dogmatize now on the subject—a tendency that was very common a few years ago. While it would not be wise with present experience, to call Windom's plan just the thing and to predict for it sure success, it may be said that the plan certainly is plausible and does appear practicable. The danger that business will go to a silver basis is removed or minimized by the clause that leaves it to the discretion of the secretary to suspend the purchase of bullion and the issue of bullion certificates whenever it seems necessary or proper to do so, and the needless expense of coining silver dollars to be heaped up in the public treasury while certificates are issued against them, will be exchanged for the simpler expedient of issuing the certificates against the bullion itself. This feature of the plan is certainly in accord with business principles and plain common sense.

FOR CAPITAL AND MONOPOLY.

There are journals in the East that are unable to look at the tariff question from any other point of view than that of the lordly manufacturers. Their arguments are supported by the most sophistical assumptions. Here is the Springfield Republican attempting to convince wool growers that the tariff on wool gives the producer no increase of price but rather that it causes the price to decline.

Now, what does the manufacturer want? Cheaper wool. He says the price of wool is so high that he can't make money, and the Springfield Republican says the same thing. Hence the demand for free trade in wool. But this demand is accompanied by an assurance to the wool grower that if the wool duty is repealed he will get higher prices. Do the organs of manufacturing monopoly suppose that the West can be juggled within this way?

Here also is the Boston Herald saying: "The republican party, in the interest of money and of monopoly, has been converted into a party more illiberal on the subject of the tariff than any party ever known in the hundred years of the existence of the government. It makes claims for privileges to capital that were not only never granted but never asked for before."

Grosser misrepresentation would be impossible. They who clamor for free trade in materials and protection for goods are the persons who work in the interest of money and monopoly. They claim privileges for capitalists interested in manufactures which they would deny to the producers and working-classes in the fields, forests and mines of the country. The effort to change the tariff on the democratic-mugwump plan is an effort in the interest of capital and monopoly, and it is resisted in the interest of the great body of the toilers of the country.

GAMBLING.

"Modern Gambling and Gambling Laws" is the subject of a very intelligent discussion by an English lawyer in the November number of the Nineteenth Century. This able lawyer, in opening his discussion, admits what no prohibitionist in America ever can be made to understand, viz: that in no case of repressive legislation is the legislature in a more delicate or difficult position than in trying to deal effectively with gambling and the drink habit. We quote:

> The cases of purely criminal acts such as murder, robbery, arson and the like are comparatively easy to deal with, they call for little exercise of tact or discrimination. But with gambling as with all other habits and practices in which excess alone assumes a vicious form, an ideal state of the law can only be attained by hitting a medium between two extremes, between over laxity and over severity. It must while providing preventives for such excesses as can only tend to demoralization, abstain from officious interference with harmless recreation.

This passage is worth citing for it sets forth the difficulty of dealing with habits which are liable to become vices through excess as if they were absolute crimes. It may be fairly claimed that to gamble at all is an act of folly, but it can not be fairly claimed that it is a crime in the sense that theft, rape and murder are crimes. The difficulty in legally dealing with the vice of gambling and the drink evil lies in the fact that like the social evil they attract all sorts and conditions of men, high, low, rich and poor. Men gamble in private life, gamble at their club, gamble at the race course, gamble in lotteries, gamble in futures in the stock market and the corn exchange, and this universality of gambling in its various forms renders it difficult to make repressive legislation at once effective and impartial. Public opinion is wounded on so many sides when you seek to enforce repressive legislation that it is most difficult to prevent the laws against gambling, the drink habit and the social evil from becoming obsolete and inefficient. The surface of popular resistance presented to the law is so much larger than in case of theft, murder or crimes of violence that the law is not sternly enforced. The English law recognizes this fact. It does not make betting illegal but makes wagers unenforceable at law, placing them on the same footing with debts of honor. A man may bet, but he cannot legally collect his winnings. Another curiosity of English law is found in its suppression of betting offices that tempted poor men to bet, like the sweepstakes that were declared illegal as lotteries in 1845 and the list offices which were suppressed in 1853, and yet Tattersall's, where the patrician betting man operated, was not suppressed. The English lawyer on this point says:

> The great distinction between the two lies in this: that in the betting houses against which the statute is directed some one or more persons always hold the bank against the rest, at Tattersall's and similarly constituted clubs this is not the course of business, seeing that every one is free to bet with everybody else. The class of persons who used to resort to the betting houses were doubtless of the poorer class, just the persons who could not afford to bet, and to whom betting was, as was often proved, a straight avenue to penal servitude. The statute, therefore, only protects him against his own avarice and gullibility; it does not punish him for betting, but only his tempter; it lays a web to catch the spider that the fly may not be caught; to suppress betting in toto is a chimerical project which the law has never yet attempted.
>
> So of the two betting men grinding at their common mill the one was taken and the other was left, and the process forms an era in the history of betting. The position was this: the proceedings at the large clubs were tacitly legalized, that is to say, institutions where the public were not invited but to which access could only be gained in the common way by formal election and by payment of fees, where the members could meet and bet as they liked and with whom they liked, where there were no one or more persons making a book as against the rest, where all betting was on credit and no ready money passed, and where an available market was always to be found for any given transaction or commission—these were to have a recognized existence.

While betting is popular in England, the gaming house, as it was known in the last century, has fallen into disrepute and decay. In the life of William Wilberforce it is told that he won £600 at faro from persons who could ill afford to lose it and gave up the game for conscience sake.

THE TRUTH ABOUT IOWA.

Certain prohibitionists continue to insist that prohibition is not a failure in Iowa. The weight of evidence is against them. The leading republican congressman from that state, David B Henderson, Congressman Joseph B Reed, Governor-elect Boies and the republican Sioux City Journal agree that the people of Iowa intend to change their policy from prohibition to high license and that a majority of the new legislature will support this change. Internal Revenue Collector Webster said: "Last May in his district, containing forty nine counties there was not a town of 300 inhabitants for which retail liquor dealers' license had not been issued by the United States government. In the county of Governor Larrabee, a strong supporter of the existing prohibition law, which does not contain a large town, Mr Webster had secured forty-two convictions for failing to take out national licenses. During the present year 232 more liquor licenses have been granted by the government in Iowa than during the last year. The importation of packages of liquor has increased enormously, and wholesale liquor houses have sprung up all along the borders of the state."

The New York World's Des Moines correspondent says: "There is no question that more drunkenness exists in Iowa to-day than under the license system formerly in vogue here. This is largely due to the fact that the quality of liquor sold is the cheapest and vilest that can be had." A correspondent of the Indianapolis Journal writes: "Prohibition is a troublesome question in Iowa, as everywhere else. People in that state appear to be thoroughly dissatisfied with the working of the law, yet it doesn't interfere to any great extent with drinking. A house in which liquor is sold can be torn down, but in the little city of Council Bluffs there are sixty places where liquor is to be had and still a greater number in Des Moines."

THE MINNEAPOLIS DISASTER.

The catalogue of calamity will certainly be full when the records of 1889 are completed. Disaster has trodden swiftly upon the heels of disaster throughout eleven months of the year, and the twelfth opens under a shadow of gloom, cast by fire and shipwreck the details of which are replete with human agony and death, and the loss of many thousand dollars worth of property.

The fire in the Tribune building at Minneapolis was in many respects the most disastrous blaze of the year. As is usual in the case of fire in an alleged "fire proof" building the fact is discovered that the building was poorly constructed, that it was a "fire trap" and that it had been for some time considered dangerous. In the face of all this a large number of men worked constantly in the building taking chances of death by fire or by collapse of the structure until they were called hurriedly from their work on the fatal night to find their escape from the doomed building cut off by a sea of flame rioting with noisy gusts in the spiral stairway that was the only means of egress provided in an eight-story building.

It is probable that many of the men who were at work in this building were in ignorance of the fact which is now for the first time made public that the building was considered unsafe. It is an arraignment of common sense and an insult to common prudence to suppose that these men would have worked in the eighth story of a building the only means of exit from which was by a dark narrow spiral stairway winding round an elevator shaft had they known that the building was loosely constructed and a sham so far as the claim of being fire proof was concerned. Nor is it reasonable to suppose that the proprietors fully understood the danger. They certainly had large and valuable interests at stake and as business men could scarcely be accused of the folly of keeping these in constant jeopardy. The censure, therefore must fall upon the contractors and builders who did a cheap job where first-class work was an absolute necessity to the protection of human life. This is the old story, and by the time the site of the building has been cleared of its smouldering ruins, whatever there is of warning in the dreadful holocaust of Saturday night will have been forgotten until called up by the next disaster of similar nature.

Secretary Tracy in his annual report, warns congress of the fallacy of the belief that our reconstructed navy is able to protect the country's interests at sea in the event of war. He shows that when the programme of navy building is completed the United States as far as its capacity for defense is concerned will be absolutely at the mercy of nations "having less than one tenth of its population, one thirtieth of its wealth and one hundredth of its area." This, added to the plain words of the secretary of war in which the absolutely defenseless condition of our enormous coast line is depicted should be sufficient to cause congress to stop haggling over the tariff and warring over personal bills long enough to consider measures calculated to put the country in a state of defense that will at least not invite attack. No matter how valiantly this nation might shout defiance to a call for the surrender of important interests to a foreign power she would evidently be in poor condition to back her proud and patriotic spirit with powder and cannon balls. There is no excuse for this except in the sentimental idea that trusts more to the magnanimity of the world than its history warrants.

No wonder this country swarms with "agents" peddling articles on which letters patent have been granted. The housewife who is called from her work from one to six times daily to meet an able bodied tramp who insists upon discoursing volubly upon the virtues of some article which he carries, ranging in size from a coffee strainer to a coal scuttle, and in price from 10 cents to $10 dollars, will no doubt be delighted to learn that only 22,941 patents were granted last year. It is no use for her to try to convince the agent that she needs none of these things. He is no one of the kind that is open to conviction. Take, for example that patent "pie lifter," an ingenious device warranted to take the pie from the oven and deposit it on the shelf with deftness, neatness and dispatch. Clearly there is no reason why the housekeeper of the present day should content herself to use a dish cloth for this purpose just because her mother did. It is equally clear that it is not the fault of the agent, nor of the "invention" if she is awkward enough to turn her blackberry pie upside down on the floor or on her feet the first time she essays to use the ingenious device. In the words of Longfellow:

"Let us be patient these severe afflictions
Not from the ground arise."

They come directly from the United States patent office and all progressive patriotic citizens should bear them uncomplainingly. They represent the one industry that flourishes without encouragement from the people.

The wreck of the American ship Chesebrough off the coast of Japan on the 30th of October, is recorded. The details are those which have been recited to the sympathetic public and shuddering families and friends of those lost at sea until the story has become a sadly familiar one. It is that of a staunch vessel being beaten to pieces upon a rocky shore by the cruel force of the waves, of a gallant captain and brave crew going down to their death in defiance of superhuman efforts to save themselves and each other, of the surviving few saved they know not how from the awful vortex that swallowed up the many and of stricken hearts made desolate by the horrors that wait upon shipwreck. It is a story that however familiar, never fails to excite sympathy in the telling. In this case the summary of disaster is furnished in the words "Out of a crew of twenty three, but four were saved."

Says the Tacoma Ledger: "This is the second time that the Ledger has inquired of THE OREGONIAN, where is the chief commercial emporium of the Northwest?" It was the infelicity of THE OREGONIAN not to note the first inquiry. To this second inquiry it cheerfully makes answer that the returns of the clearing houses show that Portland is the "chief commercial emporium of the Northwest," by a long distance. Seattle is second. Tacoma is third. Portland's business exceeds that of Seattle and Tacoma together, and Seattle's is twice that of Tacoma. These figures are from the best authority, Bradstreet's, and if the Tacoma Ledger will subscribe for that useful publication it will not be compelled to call a third time on THE OREGONIAN for information as to what place is "the chief commercial emporium of the Northwest."

PERSONS WORTH KNOWING ABOUT.

Mr Mills thinks that if another presidential election were to be held this year Cleveland would get the office, but then Mr Mills is given to thinking things that have no basis of fact to justify them.

Wilkie Collins, by his will, directed that he be buried in Kensal Green cemetery, at a cost not exceeding $125, that no scarves or hatbands should be used and that a plain stone cross, placed over his grave should bear only the inscription which he had prepared.

A Milwaukeean, Professor de Guerville, teacher of French in Milwaukee college, has devised and put into practice the most practical use for the phonograph to which that ingenious instrument has yet been applied. He uses it to give his pupils a standard of French pronunciation.

Julius Baxter of Nashville, prospective candidate for governor of Tennessee next year, while a democrat, says he would like to see the so-called Solid South broken. "It would be better for the South commercially," he said, "and better for the whole country to have party lines changed."

Mr William Waldorf Astor has written a magazine article combating Chicago's claims to the World's fair. A more effective method of combating Chicago would be for Mr Astor to come down with a $100,000 subscription to the New York fund, but that would not be quite so economical.

Haines D Cunningham, a newspaper man of wide and varied experience and exceptionable ability, has been appointed editor of the New York Press, a place which was held by Robert P Porter from the time of the foundation of the paper until he became superintendent of the United States census.

Thomas A Edison has been busy for a day or two listening to comic opera or rather witnessing it for he hears very little, and discussing with one or two capitalists his project of utilizing the water power of Niagara falls. Mr Edison's friends say that he has recently thought out a plan which will make that vast power possible to utilize.

Mme Christine Nilsson's hopeless ill health, about which so much has been said of late, is denied on the authority of her nephew, Mr Bjorksten, who declares that her health is excellent. A correspondent of the Star, of London, testifies to the same effect. He saw her traveling in Switzerland, a curious company attending her. There was a tiny toy terrier, then there were two old ladies that might have been 100, were evidently sisters, and possibly were old servants. Finally there was a tall dark girl with deep dark eyes. This was the daughter of Madame Nilsson's husband and her inseparable companion.

SPIRIT OF THE NORTHWEST PRESS.

TOO MANY ARMY OFFICERS NOW.

Helena Independent: If General Lew Wallace aspired to be known as a humorist, he would have attained his ambition at a single bound when he proposed to make officers out of the privates of the regular army. His plan, suggested in all seriousness apparently, is to establish preparatory schools at all army posts where soldiers may fit themselves for holding rank as commissioned officers after one year at West Point. Under the existing system West Point is graduating treble the number of officers every year that the service demands, and the problem which has puzzled the authorities almost ever since the army was reduced to its present exceedingly pacific basis is what to do with them.

FAULT OF THE FARMERS.

East Washingtonian: Farmers as a rule grumble because they are not better represented in our legislature, in congress or in state affairs. That they are not better represented as a class in the councils of the nation and in the affairs of the state and country is no one's fault but their own. The opportunity to have their interests advanced would be furthered by their attending caucuses and conventions and use their influence to secure the nomination of such candidates from their ranks who will represent them.

HOOD RIVER'S WATER POWER.

Hood River Glacier: There is no better or more available water power on the coast than that of Hood river. At a trifling cost compared to the power furnished the whole river could be brought through the valley and here utilized with a fall of between 400 and 500 feet. For all reasonable purposes, however, only a small portion of the stream would be required. With this power any amount of manufactories would spring up.

LET THEM TO OBSCURITY.

First Washingtonian: We would respectfully suggest that any boy in the legislative halls who gets drunk and loud be promptly let out and given a chance to devote his exuberance of spirit to the useful occupation of grubbing stumps. Any excess of animality were better expended that way than in disgracing the state.

Michigan Loggers Injured.

EAST TAWAS, Mich, Dec 2.—About thirty men working at a logging camp started for work before daylight in a flat car. They backed it on a sleeper overhanging the track and seventeen were more or less seriously injured.

Wrestler Tom Cannon Challenges the World.

LONDON, Dec 2.—Cannon the American champion to-night easily defeated Bazin the French champion in a wrestling match for $1000 a side and now issues a challenge to any man in the world.

CITY OF MEXICO, Dec 2.—There was a riot at the bull ring at Tlaslo yesterday between bull fighters and the spectators, nearly demolishing the amphitheater. The police were reinforced by the military and several arrests made.

LONG WRANGLES OVER TRIFLES.

The Bill to Save Boys From Cigarettes Passes the House.

MORE ABOUT THIRSTING P. DYER.

The House Angry With Lieut.-Gov Laughton—Who Will Be United States Judge?—An Unmanly Attack on Judge Struve.

OLYMPIA, Dec 2.—The house is getting to be the laughing stock of the state. Their wrangles are becoming notorious. A number of Puget sound representatives who spent Sunday at home say their constituents inquired with a knowing smile, "What's the matter with you fellows at Olympia? What are you trying to do?" The house is indeed an unwieldy and unparliamentary body that would not be bad in itself if each member did not think he knew more than his neighbor and was always in a hurry to give vent to his knowledge.

Something must be done. Speaker Feighan must draw the line of demarkation somewhere and the proper place is at the aimless discussion that results in nothing but delay to legislation. He will have to do it sometime, and the earlier he gets at it the better it will be for the state.

Both houses met to-day with the determination of doing a good three weeks work between now and Christmas. The effort was an utter failure. The house fooled away the greater part of the day on Shinn's cigarette bill, and passed it after a great waste of wind. The senate held a brief session, considered some house business, introduced a few new bills and adjourned until 2 P M to-morrow. It returned several house measures, which had not been properly indorsed.

Senator Forsythe's bill to provide for the assessing and collecting of county and state revenue provides that all property real and personal within the state, except the property of the United States, of the state of Washington, of school districts, burial grounds not owned for speculative purposes, household furniture to the amount of $100 cash value for each family and all wearing apparel in actual use and food for the family one year if actually in stock. Senator Forsythe says the act is taken largely from the California, Kansas and Wisconsin laws embodying the best parts of each, in his opinion. The bill provides for the taxation of church property, and will no doubt receive considerable opposition on this score. The matter of tax collection and the division into funds is very simple and effective, the same as the California law.

The house had less reason than usual to get into a wrangle this morning and finished the regular order by an hour before noon. Shinn's bill to prohibit the sale of cigarettes to minors under 16 years of age, with the judiciary committee's substitute to prohibit the manufacture or sale of cigarettes, which had been made the special order for 2 P M, was taken up. The house went into committee of the whole, with Brown of Spokane in the chair. When the bill had been read Brown brought his gavel down on the desk and announced: "Gentlemen, I want to say right here that if I am going to be in the chair three minutes I am going to stop this racket, therefore these heavy weight pages will tread lightly." [Laughter.]

Bad as it seems, the house could not resist the temptation to involve itself in a wrangle. It had enough consideration for Shinn to wait until he had explained the purport of his bill and expressed the wish that the substitute would be rejected. Then the fun began. Motions and amendments and substitutes were offered in utter disregard of parliamentary procedure.

Clark said the substitute smacked too much of the prohibition idea. Feighan then bobbed up with an amendment for the substitute. It reduced the penalties, the fine to not less than $25 nor more than $100 and the imprisonment to not less than one month or more than three months. It was Eddy's turn next. He had a substitute or an amendment. It proposed to strike out the word manufacture and prohibit the sale of tobacco to persons under 21.

Everything was in utter confusion about this time. No one had a clear understanding of the status of affairs. Chairman Brown was puzzled. There were too many substitutes, amendments, motions and points of order for him. "Just make as many points of order as you please, gentlemen," he called out. "There's lots of time."

It was now noon and a motion to rise found favor. An amendment to ask leave to sit again was relegated to obscurity. "This is what," Chairman Brown said in reporting to Speaker Feighan, "the committee of the whole has held a stormy session in the consideration of this bill, and has made no progress whatever." [Laughter.]

At the afternoon session Pickrell started the ball rolling again by moving the acceptance of the judiciary committee's substitute. His motion was downed by an overwhelming vote. Then the original bill came up for action. Judson's (of Pierce) motion to raise the age of the person to whom tobacco may be sold from 16 to 18 years was adopted.

Randall moved that any person under 18 who secures tobacco by representing that he is over the prescribed age shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and be punishable by a fine not to exceed $25 or be imprisoned for not longer than thirty days. The amendment was accepted. After some more aimless debate the house refused to recommit the bill and passed it by a vote of 48 to 16.

Clark hoped that the title of the bill would not be changed. He said it was a child born without a name and he hoped it would remain that way. The title was changed so as to cover the bill. Following is the text of the bill as passed:

> A bill to be entitled an act to prevent the purchase, sale or gift of tobacco, cigars, cigarettes by or to any person under the age of 18 years and to provide a penalty for such offense.
>
> Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:
>
> SECTION 1—That it shall be unlawful for any person or persons to sell, give, barter or in any manner dispose of any tobacco, cigars or cigarettes to any person under the age of 18 years.
>
> SEC 2—Any person or persons who shall violate the provisions of section 1 of this act shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor and shall upon conviction thereof be for the first offense fined in any sum of not less than $10 nor more than $50, and for each subsequent offense shall be fined in any sum of not less than $10 nor more than $50, or be imprisoned in the county jail for a term of not exceeding thirty days or both fined and imprisoned at the discretion of the court.
>
> SEC 3—Any person under the age of 18 years who shall represent to any person dealing in tobacco, cigars or cigarettes that he is over the age of 18 years and by means of such misrepresentation procure from said dealer in tobacco, cigars and cigarettes shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $25 or be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding thirty days.

Many think the bill is illegal, because the title does not state its purposes, and second because it embraces two subjects, one providing for the punishment of a seller and the other for a buyer.

Senator Long introduced a good resolution to-day which, if it had been in order would have put a stop to the fight between towns and counties to secure state institutions. It provided that the location of all public institutions should be made by a commission appointed for that purpose by the governor, with the advice and consent of the senate, and the commissioners thus appointed report to next legislature. The presiding officer declared the resolution out of order, holding that a bill was necessary to accomplish the purpose. Long said his object was to take the locating of these institutions out of the hands of the present legislature. He believed it would be best for the public service. Every member now was expected by his constituents to bring home an institution of this kind in his coat-tail pocket and he was in favor of saddling that responsibility upon the next legislature.

Governor Ferry has been confined to his rooms for nearly a week. He caught a bad cold on inauguration day which has settled on his lungs and is causing him considerable trouble. He is however getting very much better and hopes to be in his up-town office to attend to the numerous matters awaiting his attention in a very few days.

Lieutenant Governor Laughton made the house members very mad to-day by holding that several of the house bills and memorials which had been sent to the senate had not been correctly endorsed. He maintained that a full history of the passage of the bill, the vote it received and other particulars should be contained in the endorsement. Objection was taken to his decision and a vote was called for. His view was sustained by a vote of 30 to 4. The lieutenant governor announced to-night that he would take water to-morrow morning by reversing his decision. It is well that he has decided to do so. There was a movement on foot among several members of the house to insist that the endorsement was correct and to refuse to consent to an amendment.

The King county delegation has not learned from J C Stratton of Seattle as to whether he will accept the district attorneyship of the county vice W W Newlin deceased. Thirsten P Dyer's cold blooded telegram to one of the King county men, Reinhart, asking the delegation to unite and urge Governor Ferry to support him, has occasioned considerable comment, the drift of which is unfavorable to Dyer. Dyer's telegram recalls a speech Henry Clay made in the United States senate in the 30s. The doorkeeper of the senate had been taken suddenly ill and in anticipation of his death there were many applications for his place. Clay in his address said: "This is a case where the rush for office outstrips the progress of disease."

Now that the senators and congressmen are in Washington city, federal appointments are expected soon. It was stated to-day that the United States circuit judge would be appointed first, and that Judge Calkins of Spokane Falls would be the man. This is based on the fact that Calkins is an Indiana man, and so is Congressman Wilson and likewise President Harrison. An Eastern Washington senator says Harrison and Calkins have not been on good terms because of political differences. Wilson is in a peculiar position. He is believed to be a Calkins man at heart but he owes S C Hyde of Spokane Falls a debt for his political ascendency, and he cannot very well give the ex senatorial aspirant the cold shoulder. He stated before going to Washington that both Hyde and Calkins were his friends, and he would not interfere between them, leaving the inference to be drawn that he would let Squire and Allen settle who should have the judgeship. It will not be long, however, before Mr Wilson will have to show his hand. Senator Squire is believed to be pledged for Hyde. The day he left Olympia he denied this, and said he was pledged to no one. Hyde took up the cue and reiterated Squire's statement. He declared positively that Squire was not pledged to him, and, so far as he knew, to no one. Hyde while here made a hot fight for the place and used the wires liberally in his behalf. He telegraphed East that he had been promised Squire's support. This came out just before the senatorial election, and raised quite a stir. Hyde denied it, but it was true, all the same. Squire got seven Spokane votes, and the presumption is that they were not given for nothing. Judge Turner, the Spokane candidate for senator, got but three King county votes. Senator Allen has said that he would support whoever Squire and Wilson agree on. It is asserted positively that he promised to support Judge Hanford of Seattle.

It was thought for a while that Judge Struve, of Seattle, was Squire's candidate. Many think a Seattle man will not get the place because King county has already received a good share of the offices, and that the contest is between Hyde and Calkins, with chances in favor of the former. Struve seems to have dropped out of sight. But little is heard of his candidacy. Since he has entered the field his enemies have brought to light printed copies of an open letter he wrote to Beriah Brown September 18 1878. There is absolutely nothing in it that reflects upon Struve. He has been charged with having deserted from the army, with non-citizenship, and with making, while secretary of the territory, a corrupt bargain with the public printer by permitting the use of inferior paper and furnishing a smaller quantity of it than was allowed by law. In the letter Judge Struve admitted the charge of desertion, but defended himself by saying that he enlisted when less than 16 years of age, and as he was not of legal age the enlistment was void ab initio. He enlisted with the hope of seeing active service, but being assigned to hospital service the delusion was dispelled, and he became disgusted and took French leave. Upon investigation the President canceled the enlistment and Struve was vindicated of the other charges and set aright before the world.

HOUSE PROCEEDINGS.

Provisions of New Bills—The Anti-Cigarette Act Passed.

OLYMPIA, Dec. 2.—The house began the week's business by refusing to accept Gandy's motion to correct Saturday's journal. He held that Plummer's motion to add certain societies to Migler's bill making it a misdemeanor for any one to wear the button of the Grand Army who has no right to included more societies than were named by the clerk when the motion was up.

Robert Blake, the journal clerk, sent word to the house that his work is piling up and he requires assistance. Blake was asked for further information.

The vote by which the house refused to print Clark's temperance bill on Saturday, was reconsidered and the bill ordered printed.

REPORT.

From the committee on agriculture favorably on Stevenson's bill to prevent deception in dairy products, ordered engrossed.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS.

By Geoghegan—To provide for the payment of the officers and employes of the legislature.

By Rutter—To establish a bureau of statistics of labor, agriculture and immigration. The bill is the same as the one introduced in the senate by Jones. It leaves the work to a commissioner, to be appointed by the governor and appropriates $4600 to run the bureau for the first year, labor and statistics.

By Edens—Amending the law for the construction of dykes and dams, counties and county lines. The bill amends the present laws. It authorizes five persons, instead of ten, as now, to petition for the building of dykes.

By Mead—Providing for the appointment of official stenographers for superior courts, fixing their compensation at $10 per day and allowing them 20 cents per hundred words for transcripts of evidence. Judiciary.

By Clark—To create a board of railroad commissioners, railroad committee.

By Plummer—Declaring streets in cities that extend from high tide to navigable water public highways and placing them under the control of cities.

SECOND READING OF BILLS.

By Grant—For the display of the American flag on public buildings and school houses, ordered engrossed.

By Sharpe—For the prevention of cruelty to children, medicine, surgery and hygiene.

THIRD READING OF BILLS.

By Shinn—Prohibiting the sale of cigarettes to minors passed.

SENATE PROCEEDINGS.

An Office for Major Dorney—Irregularity in House Bills.

OLYMPIA, Dec 2.—The senate was called to order and, the roll call showing a quorum, business was proceeded with. Senators Wood, Landes and Payne were granted leave of absence. Senator Hunsaker was substituted as chairman of the committee on enrollment, in place of Senator Drum at the request of the latter senator.

Wood introduced a resolution that the committees on mines and mining, labor and labor statistics, commerce and manufacturing be allowed one clerk jointly, and that P S Dorney be designated as such clerk. The resolution was carried.

The house joint resolution in reference to selection of committee rooms was concurred in.

House memorial No 1 in relation to the navigation of certain tributaries of the Columbia river which had passed the house was read a first and second time and under suspension of the rules referred to the committee on commerce.

House memorial No 2, in relation to the withdrawal of certain lands in Stevens county, was found defective in regard to endorsements of the history of its passage in the house, and was referred back for correction, as was also the previous memorial in the same condition.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS.

For the appointment, duties and salaries of the clerks of the superior court, committee on judiciary.

By Forsythe—To provide for assessing and collection of county and state taxes. A long discussion followed the introduction of this bill regarding the advisability of having it printed. Senator Kinnear thought the new code would cover the ground and as that would have to be printed, he objected to going to useless expense. It was finally ascertained that the new code did not contain anything in relation to taxes, and the bill was ordered printed.

Judson's house bill, making an appropriation of $140,000 to defray the expenses of the first legislature, was returned to the house for correction in regard to the history of its passage.

A little tilt between Long and Parkinson amused the senate. The senator from Lewis objected to wrong motives being imputed to him by the senator from Whatcom, which he claimed had been done during the discussion on the printing of Forsythe's bill. Parkinson was as meek as a lamb, and disclaimed any such motives. The bloody chasm was then filled up.

Fairweather introduced a resolution allowing the committee on revenue and taxation a clerk, and designating Miss Wilson as such, carried.

The senate then resolved itself into a committee of the whole to discuss senate bill No 22, but the original manuscript of the bill not being on hand adjournment was taken until to-morrow at 1 o'clock P M.

ADOLPH SUTRO'S MUNIFICENCE.

He Proposes to Turn His Great Library Over to the Public.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec 2.—Adolph Sutro, who for some time past has been traveling in the Old World collecting rare volumes for his valuable library and plants and trees for his park on Sutro Heights near the Cliff house, has returned. It has long been Sutro's intention to turn his immense library, which at present consists of over 200,000 rare and costly volumes especially collected from all parts of the world, over to a board of trustees and throw it open to the general public. He also proposes to erect a building for a library at a cost of about half a million and permanently endow it.

In conversation upon the subject this morning Sutro said he was now considering a site for such a building. He rather favors a library building in Golden Gate park if ground can be secured there.

CONGRESS WILL DO MUCH WORK.

Legislation on the Tariff Question Certain—The Country Expects It.

WASHINGTON, Dec 2.—Senator Allison is reported in a local paper as saying, in reply to a question of what prospect there was of legislation on the tariff this session:

There will be some legislation on the tariff. Whether it will be on the lines of the bill prepared by the senate finance committee last session is too broad a question to answer now. I think this congress will accomplish a great deal of work. The country expects a great deal of us and I don't think it will be disappointed.

THE DEADLY TYPHOON CAME.

How the Ship Chesebrough Was Lost in the Japan Seas.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec 2.—Victor Broeck, Henry Wilson, William Regan and Moses Lee Rosa, survivors of the crew of the American ship Chesebrough which was wrecked October 30 in Tsugaru straits, Japan, arrived here by the steamer Gaelic yesterday. Broeck, who is well connected in the East, and whose voyage on the ship was undertaken more as a diversion than anything else, says to-day that the experiences of the vessel after she left Hakodate, sulphur laden, would form the basis for a play. Her voyage was fine and uneventful for the first week and then the deadly typhoon came which caused the ship's destruction.

The wind came up so suddenly that it was impossible to reef half the sails, and those that were still unfurled were torn to ribbons. The survivors were cared for by Japanese, and they finally made their way to the consulate at Hakodate. The consul clothed them and provided their passage to this city.

The Chesebrough was a wooden ship of 1500 tons burden, and was named for Captain A Chesebrough of this city. She was worth about $40,000.

THE PERALTA CLAIM INVALID.

Supported by Forgery and Fraud—Vast Section of Arizona Affected.

TUCSON, Ariz, Dec 2.—Surveyor General Johnson has transmitted to the commissioner of the general land office an adverse report upon the Peralta grant, claimed by James Addison Reavis, containing 5,000,000 acres of public lands, including the cities of Phoenix, Florence, Solomonville, etc., conservatively valued at $5,000,000. It was alleged that this grant was recommended by Ferdinand VI of Spain in 1748, and issued to Miguel Peralta, by the viceroy of New Spain, in 1758.

Reavis first claimed title, and later set up title in his wife as the lineal heir of Peralta. The surveyor general holds that there is proof of forgery and fraudulent insertion of papers in the archives and fabrication of documents. The surveyor general recommends that the claim be not allowed and urges vigorous prosecution of the parties guilty of fabricating this fraudulent claim.

LET YOUR LIGHT SO SHINE.

Important Decision in a Suit Growing Out of a Steamboat Collision.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec 2.—Judge Hoffman, of the United States district court, has just rendered a decision of much importance to merchants and ship owners in the libel suit of the steamship State of California against the barkentine Portland, and in the companion suit in which the relations of the owners of the two vessels were reversed. The cases grew out of a collision which occurred outside the heads over two years ago. The decision is in favor of the steamer, the Portland being held responsible for the accident through failure to properly display her lights.

BUSINESS FAILURES.

Great Philadelphia Houses in Knit Goods and Drugs Succumb.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec 2.—An attachment was obtained to-day against Lewis R Cox & Co, manufacturers of knit goods, New York and Philadelphia, and the sheriff is in possession of the New York house and that in Philadelphia. It is said Cox is ill, but an attorney for the creditors estimated that the liabilities would amount to half a million.

The Mellor & Rittenhouse Co, drugs and chemicals, assigned to-day. The company was organized three years ago with a capital stock of $300,000. The liabilities are estimated at $300,000.

VERY PROMISING WEATHER.

Bright Outlook for a Deep Blanket of Snow on North Dakota.

JAMESTOWN, N. D., Dec. 2.—A heavy snowfall began last night and still continues. Over four inches have fallen on the level. This is more than fell altogether last winter, and is regarded as very promising for future moistening of the ground.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

Isaac L. Milliken, ex mayor of Chicago, is dead, aged 76.

Attorney General Miller has appointed Fremont Wood assistant United States attorney for the district of Idaho.

Assistant-Postmaster Hubbard of Chicago says the time between Chicago and Portland will be further reduced three hours within a month.

Although the republican propaganda is very active in Portugal it is denied that the revolution in Brazil has given impetus to the agitation.

James B Blodgett of Rockford, Ill, has been appointed special agent to collect statistics of education in the United States for the eleventh census.

S. H Goddard, formerly grand chancellor of the Knights of Pythias of Nevada, and well known in California and Colorado as an architect and contractor, died suddenly, Monday morning, at Santa Fe.

In the trial of the Navassa rioters at Baltimore, George S Key was convicted of murder, Moses A. Williams acquitted and the jury disagreed as to sixteen others. Key appealed. Henry and Caesar Fisher will be tried for murder December 10.

The United States steamer Enterprise, now in English waters, and under orders to come home, has been ordered by the navy department to proceed to Antwerp to receive the remains of ex Minister Pendleton and convey them to the United States for burial.

Ex Lieutenant of Police James Connor, of Denver, and James Marshall, of Kansas City, have been sentenced at Denver to two years in jail and a fine of $1000 each, and Charles Connors to one year in jail and $500 fine for conspiracy to rob a Rio Grande express train.

"A SECOND LEADVILLE."

That Is What Mr. H. W. Higley Says There Will Be in the Okanogan Country.

Mr H W Higley has about seventy five pounds of galena and gray carbonate ores at the Esmond. The specimens are very handsome, and are being admired daily by many mining men. They are from the new "Lady of the Lake" mine of the Okanogan country, which is five miles from the celebrated "Arlington."

"How does the ore assay, Mr Higley?" was asked.

"Oh about $100," he replied. "I say that because I am a practical miner and want to give figures that practical men will feel like trusting. Picked samples have gone as high as $2000 and a mill test of 200 pounds showed $146, but $100 is, I think, a very fair average.

"We do not have to go down at all, but right in from the shore of the lake. In this way we can tap the vein at a depth of 400 to 500 feet without expensive machinery. The ledge is from sixteen to twenty feet wide, clear and solid, and lies between granite and schist.

"The location of the mine is particularly favorable on account of the capabilities which it offers for tunneling. A tunnel is now about seventy five feet in, and exposes large quantities of magnificent ore. We are also cross cutting at this point with good results. The ore is free from base and is largely impregnated with gray carbonates, which give it its wonderful value.

"I have been surprised to see," continued Mr Higley, "since my arrival here, how extensively Portland capital is interested in the mines of that country.

"Yes, they all have rich ore and plenty of it, if they only get it out. We will have a second Leadville up there first thing we know. This mine is near a whole lot of other rich claims in which Portlanders are interested."

A MYSTERIOUS SHOT NEAR MIDNIGHT.

A Shooting Escapade at the Corner of Ninth and Yamhill Streets—No Arrests.

About half past 11 o'clock last night the loud report of a pistol was heard in the vicinity of Ninth and Yamhill streets. Immediately after the shot one man was seen running down Ninth street as though he was about half killed, while another started up Ninth to Salmon, up Salmon to Tenth and up Tenth where he was lost to view. A number of families residing in the vicinity heard the shot, but when they looked out they could only hear the screams of the man, who had started down Ninth street, gradually dying away in the distance.

Officers Byers, Holsapple, Emig and Hickey, who had been attracted by the report, made an investigation, but after a diligent search failed to find either of the men who were in such a haste to get away after the pistol was fired.

The affair is shrouded in mystery, but it is the belief of the officers that the man who evidently received a bullet wound was to blame, and he ran away to escape exposure. The other man ran to escape arrest.

SHE IS NOT TO BE FOUND.

Mrs Margaret Riley and Her Son Willie Have Left for Parts Unknown.

Mr Ira F Powers is very anxious to learn the whereabouts of Mrs Margaret Riley and her son Willie. It will be remembered that the latter was released from the custody of the Boys and Girls' Aid Society on a writ of habeas corpus.

As soon as the writ was granted the society petitioned Judge Shattuck for the custody of the child, and an order was made allowing a warrant to issue, making it returnable yesterday. Although two men have hunted high and low for the woman and child they have been unable to find a trace of them. She has evidently left town. Mr Powers has an abundance of proof that the woman is an unfit person to have the custody of the child, but his position now is such that he can do nothing.

HAS CHANGED HIS APPEARANCE.—Officer Hickey, who for a long time has been the terror of all the hoodlums in Goose Hollow, has been transferred to a beat near the center of the city. Since assuming his duties at his new post he has disposed of his mustache, and when he now occasionally returns to his old haunts the denizens of Goose Hollow think they can see a close resemblance to O'Rugan of Texas. They fail to recognize the cop who so long has journeyed among them.

THAT CASE OF IMPURE MILK.

Inspector Eser Starts to Prosecute a Case But Drops It.

Mention was made in these columns about three weeks since of the practice of an East Portland dairyman whom, it was alleged, served his customers with impure and unwholesome milk. Mr. Peter Eser, milk inspector, set about making inquiries and Saturday afternoon he thought he had sufficient evidence to bring about a conviction and he accordingly swore out a warrant. The dairyman's name is M. Cartney, and he resides on the Sandy road, near what is known as the old race track, about two miles east of the city limits. It is claimed that the milk which he sold to his customers as the pure article, was taken from a cow that was suffering from what is known as the "teat disease." The milk was extremely foul and contained a stringy, diseased mass, which the dairyman attempted to eradicate by straining and the liberal use of water. Chester Foorman, who was employed by McCartney as milker at the time that it is alleged the impure milk was being sold, is the principal witness for the prosecution. There are also several others who were witnesses to the affair and who will testify against McCartney. A visit was paid to the ranch by Mr. Eser immediately after the publication of the article, but the premises were found to be in a cleanly condition. Dr. Whycomb, the veterinary surgeon, was called by Mr. Eser to examine into the condition of the cows, but could find no disorder among any of them. It is, however, claimed by the authorities that McCartney, at the time of the surgeon's visit, had the diseased animal hid on the premises. Although it was claimed that the evidence against McCartney was sufficiently strong to convict, the warrant for his arrest was withdrawn, for some reason best known to the authorities.

THE LAW WILL BE TESTED.

Officer Woods Gets Chinamen to Sell Cigarettes to a Decoy Minor.

The cases of the five Chinamen, Sing Kee, Ah ..., Fong Lee, Ah Wing, and Gee Hing, charged with selling cigarettes to minors, came up in the police court yesterday afternoon. Judge Moreland, counsel for the defendants, did not care to try the cases in the police court, if the court deemed an examination necessary. He was willing to submit their cases without any testimony, and only asked that a fine sufficiently high to enable him to take an appeal be imposed, in case the court considered the defendants guilty. Judge Tanner fined each of the defendants $30 and papers of appeal were at once filed.

Judge Moreland proposes to test the law as to its legality. He claims that the defendants are not guilty of selling cigarettes to minors, as they sold them to Officer Wood's authorized agent. Officer Woods hired some boy as a decoy, gave him the money with which to purchase the cigarettes, and then received the cigarettes. Looking upon the transaction in this light, the defendants sold the cigarettes to Woods, through the latter's agent, who happened to be a minor.

"I believe," said Judge Moreland to a reporter, "that the intention of the law is to protect the boys, and not to prosecute the Chinamen. If the jury approves of Officer Woods's course in causing the arrest of these Chinamen in such an underhanded manner, I am willing to abide by their decision; but I do not believe that they will place such a construction on the law."

MOUNT TABOR AND VICINITY.

Sidewalk Subscription—Elegant Residences—Hall Needed—The Baptist Entertainment.

The sidewalk from the Base Line road to West Avenue station on the Motor line is now completed. A subscription is being raised to continue it along West avenue to its junction with Hawthorne avenue. On Tabor Heights about 1400 feet of sidewalk is also being made from the Terminal station to the Base Line. These improvements are a great public convenience. If the road supervisor could get the Base Line road in [illegible] order it should be fixed.

The elegant residences of Mrs. Mansfield, Mrs. J. ... Clark, and Mrs. Stevenson are rapidly approaching completion. They expect to take possession and move in about Christmas. The residence of Mr. Smith, in Belmont Park, on the top of Mount Tabor, is making good progress, but it will not be completed for some weeks yet. No expense is being spared to make this the most perfect in detail of any on this or the west side of the river, and when completed it will be one of the most elegant homes in or around Portland, and for beauty of position and scenery cannot be surpassed.

The dinner and entertainment given on Thanksgiving day by the ladies of the Baptist church and their friends, was an entire success. A much larger number partook of the dinner, which was an excellent one, and attended the entertainment than was expected. The church was crowded to overflowing in the evening, when a pleasing programme was well rendered, each number meeting with hearty applause. The Glee Club, from East Portland, sang several numbers very well indeed, and the "Harmonica Band" was quite a pleasing feature. After the exercises closed a supper was served, to which all did ample justice. The receipts were quite substantial, and go to the Baptist church fund.

A public hall, in which entertainments could be held, is becoming quite a necessity, and the erection of one is now being discussed.

ANNIVERSARY OF ST. ANDREW'S DAY.

The Event Fittingly Commemorated by the Scotch Societies of Portland.

"Oh, Scotland's vales and Scotland's dales,
And Scotland's hills for me,
I'll drink a cup to Scotland yet,
Wi' a' the honest free."

A no less enjoyable than interesting event in the history of the Scotch organization in this city, was the opening of the new rooms in the Union block, by the Caledonia and St. Andrew's Societies, yesterday evening. The rooms are two spacious and neatly-furnished apartments adjoining the rooms of the Caledonia club and will be used as reading rooms jointly by the two societies, and all natives of auld Scotia who desire to patronize them. One will be equipped with choice reading matter, while the other will be furnished with tables for chess, checkers, and other innocent amusements.

By 8 o'clock the two rooms were well filled with Scotch citizens of Portland and invited friends. President Russell, of the St. Andrew's Society, made a pleasing introductory address, in which he briefly outlined the history of the society, and the objects of its organization, and then introduced Mrs. Weir, who favored the audience with a beautiful selection on the piano. She was followed by Mrs. R. Thompson, of East Portland, who sang "Tam Glenn" in a manner to elicit the enthusiastic applause of all present. Mrs. Thompson has a clear, resonant voice, and sang that beautiful Scotch air with the true Highland ring. She responded to a prolonged encore with another selection, which was equally as well rendered.

J. P. M. Fraser then read a humorous selection, which brought down the house.

He was followed by Mr. and Mrs. Alexander, who rendered an instrumental duet with the flute and piano. The tones of the two instruments blended beautifully, and the players received a well-deserved encore.

Dr. Hicks, president of the Caledonia club, was next introduced. He said that the anniversary of St. Andrew's day was fittingly commemorated by the opening of the new rooms. He spoke of the two societies, their distinctive objects, and the end to be gained by jointly occupying the same quarters. Having formally declared the new rooms open to the Scotch people of Portland, whether they belong to any society or not, he expressed a hope that the people would make the best use of them.

Mrs. Captain Laird then sang "Caller Herrin'" and William Stewart followed with "Scotland Yet" and "Annie Laurie." Both received hearty encores.

A half hour was then devoted to refreshments, after which the literary programme was concluded.

The exercises following consisted of a piccolo solo by James Ruddiman, vocal solo by Mr. Cochrane, "Speed on My Bark;" solos by M. R. Thompson, "Green Grows the Rushes O!" and another selection; solo by Mrs. Laird, "Och, Hey for Somebody;" recitation by Mr. Gay "Jack, the Railway Porter;" solo by Mr. J. Simpson, "Gilhooley's Soup Party," solo by Mr. Leish, "Eileen Allanna."

A vote of thanks was passed to those who participated in the exercises of the evening and the festivities closed with "Auld Lang Syne," sung by the entire audience.

THE EIGHTEEN-HOUR RACE.

A Large Crowd Present at the Start of This Long Ride.

The attendance at the pavilion last night was large. At 7:45 o'clock the skating was stopped, and Morgan, Kennedy, Knapp, Fabing and Merrill started in on the eighteen-hour bicycle race. This race is to continue until Saturday night, the contestants riding three hours each night.

Several exciting spurts were made during the evening. At 10:30 o'clock Kennedy, who had been taking things easy for some time, forged ahead and passed each of the other four riders in succession. This left Morgan in the rear, but in the fifty-first mile the latter made a spurt and, although the others worked hard, he gradually forged ahead until he got the lead, which he maintained, although Kennedy made several efforts to pass him. The pace was too hot for Merrill, and during the last three laps of the race he lost a lap, which he will find great difficulty in regaining during the week.

At the finish the men stood as follows: Morgan, 51 miles 2 laps; Kennedy, 51 miles 2 laps; Knapp, 51 miles 2 laps; Fabing, 51 miles 2 laps; Merrill, 51 miles 1 lap.

A three-mile race was to have taken place between Oaks and O'Brien, but the latter's wheel was disabled in being shipped to this city from Seattle, and the race was postponed until to-night.

GRANT'S PASS

COUNTY SEAT OF

JOSEPHINE COUNTY, ORE

The Largest and Most Prosperous
City of Its Age in the Northwest

Population:		Population:
1883	200	1889	2000

Number of buildings erected during 1889, including a $30,000 brick opera house, 212. Increase in population during same period, 700. Number of enrolled public school children in Grant's Pass, 374. Number of men employed in industrial enterprises in city, 550. Number of men engaged in placer and quartz mining in the county, 2000. Number of persons engaged in fruit growing and agricultural pursuits in the county, 2200.

Number of men employed in lumber business in twenty sawmills tributary to city, 450.

Number of churches in Grant's Pass with enrolled congregations ranging from 100 to 300 persons each, 6.

Number of acres of Government land in Josephine county open to entry, 145,000.

Number of acres of railroad lands in same county at prices ranging from $2.50 to $20 per acre, 500,000.

Value of exports for nine months ending September 30, 1889, and consisting of sash, doors, blinds, manufactured woodwork, lumber, live stock, grain, hay, gold, marble, copper, ochres, limestone, vegetables, peaches, pears, plums, apricots, almond nuts, walnuts, melons, apples, etc., $1,846,324.

Value of imports during same period, consisting of general merchandise, farming, milling and mining machinery, etc., $960,218.

Expended for labor in industrial enterprises in city and tributary country during same period, $536,000.

Number of feet of ten-foot sidewalks laid and in course of construction in city in same period, 17,000.

This is the record of a Southern Oregon town that contained but a single dwelling prior to the extension of the Oregon & California railroad in 1883.

Grant's Pass is situated on the north bank of the Rogue River, in the heart of the famous valley of that name, and is surrounded by a vast country, containing fourteen varieties of valuable woods, besides gold, silver, copper, iron, chrome, coal, limestone, marble, etc., all of which must find a market at the great manufacturing center of Southern Oregon—Grant's Pass.

Just think of a 50,000-horsepower flowing by the very door of the town, and the county teeming with the most valuable raw materials on the Pacific Coast. How long do you suppose it will be before Eastern capital will find its way into this new Eldorado?

The advantages and commercial possibilities of Grant's Pass have already been observed by such shrewd financiers as Messrs. Corbett and Failing, who start a national bank there on the first of January with a capital of $50,000. These gentlemen, together with J. C. Carson and C. H. Lewis, two of Portland's most successful business men, are also interested largely in the $150,000 sash and door factory of Grant's Pass.

Property in Grant's Pass has increased 100 per cent since May 31, 1889, and it is still 500 per cent lower than any town of like population in Oregon or Washington. Just think of buying business property, all level, cleared, sidewalked, on the principal business streets and within 300 feet of a $30,000 brick opera house for TEN DOLLARS PER FRONT FOOT.

Beautiful residence lots 50x100 feet each, all cleared, level, surrounded by handsome dwellings, and within six blocks of the heart of the city, for FIFTY DOLLARS EACH. Whole blocks, 200x220, with 20-foot alley, in same vicinity, at prices ranging from $200 to $500 per block. These prices will prevail for a few days only. All property owned by the townsite company will be advanced 100 per cent on January 1, 1890.

AN UNPARALLELED OFFER!

Five Per Cent Per Month.

Since May 31st 1889, I have sold $42,000 worth of Grant's Pass property to the parties whose names are herewith published, and I am now prepared to take back every dollar's worth of it at an advance of FIVE PER CENT PER MONTH from the date of purchase. I will do the same thing on future purchases, and will give a written guarantee of 50 per cent per annum on sums invested for the next five years. Grant's Pass is going to be a second Spokane Falls, just as sure as fate, and the investor at present prices will have cause to applaud his judgment five years hence. Title perfect. Terms: One-half cash, balance in one year at ten per cent.

EAST PORTLAND COUNCIL.

Who Will Be Street Commissioner?—Sidewalks and Electric Lights.

The Stephens Addition School Opened Again—"Shorty's" Defense—Other News of the Town

When Mayor Stewart brought down the gavel at the regular meeting of the city council last night there was a full attendance of the councilmen, there not being one vacant chair at the official table. The usual sprinkling of spectators was present.

The recorder read off the minutes of the past regular and special meetings, amid the whispering of a portion of the councilmen. The journal was approved, and the council then got down to business.

STREET COMMISSIONER RESIGNS

Charles Bartel, who has been street commissioner for the past six years, tendered his resignation, the same to take effect the first of next month. On motion the resignation was accepted. The interest will now center on who will be his successor. It is conceded the city needs a competent mechanic and bridge builder, as work requiring skill is constantly being done in the city.

ELECTRIC LIGHTS.

Mr. S. A. Hogue sent in a communication in which he stated that the big dynamo was placed in operation Sunday night, and has been running ever since. He also stated that by some mismanagement the fixtures for the additional electric lights have not yet arrived, but are expected next Monday, when the car containing the fixtures is due here. He has fixtures on hand, however, for ten of the lights and will have them going this (Tuesday) evening and the other forty as soon as the fixtures come and can be placed in position. The poles and wires are all up. The statement shows that the contractor has used due diligence to comply with his promise to have the additional fifty lights in operation by December 1. It must have been noticed that since Sunday night the lights are a full third brighter than before. Last night the lights in the council chamber were very bright and the room was brilliantly illuminated. Placed on file.

UNFAIRNESS CHARGED

From M. J. MacMahon, saying that the distribution of electric lights in McMillan's addition is very unfair, and asks explanation why such unfairness exists, filed.

PETITION.

From property holders, asking that a fire hydrant be placed on the northwest corner of block 25, H street, in Irving's addition and that the Willamette Bridge Railway Company be required to remove the earth and plank said company has left on Third street, laid on the tables as to the hydrant, and the marshal was instructed to remove the obstructions and replace crosswalks on Third street.

REPORTS.

From the city surveyor, submitting his report on the opening and extension of Fifteenth street, adopted and notice ordered.

From the surveyor submitting his report on the opening and extension of O street, adopted and notice ordered

WANTS SEWERAGE

J. H. Baylor, who owns the new hotel building on Fifth and H streets, presented a petition to the council, asking the body to take some action to provide sewerage for his hotel. The council turned the request over to the sewerage commission, which returned the communication to the council, as the commission did not consider it had authority to take action in the matter, referred to street committee

GRADES WANTED

From the Oregon Real Estate Company, asking for the establishment of grades as follows: Intersection of Hassalo and Cedar at 155.0, Elm and Hassalo at 149.00, Maple and Hassalo at 144.00; the city attorney was instructed to prepare the necessary ordinance.

From John R. Hanson and others on Clay street, asking the council to establish grades on Clay street, Holladay addition from Fourth street to the eastern boundaries of the city, city surveyor instructed to establish grades.

From the viewers, submitting their report on the opening and extension of Clinton street from Nineteenth to Twentieth street adopted and warrant for damages ordered drawn.

The fire and water committee reported adversely to the petition asking the council to have the electric light on Tenth and I changed to Eighth and I, adopted.

LIGHT WANTED

The fire and water committee was instructed to consider the advisability of establishing a light at W street and the Southern Pacific railroad, as it is considered a dangerous point

GRADES TO BE ESTABLISHED

It was moved that the surveyor be instructed to establish grades in the city west of Twenty first street and between Fuerer's addition on the south and the city boundary on the north, carried.

MAPS TO BE MADE.

The surveyor was instructed to make maps of Brooklyn and of Hawthorne avenue from Water to the river

CROSSWALK AND SIDEWALKS

The street commissioner was instructed to place a crosswalk at Sixth and U streets.

There was a red hot discussion over a motion to build a two-board sidewalk from Holladay avenue to Cedar. A great many people go to the O. & C. ferry by this route and there is no sidewalk. The mot on prevailed.

ORDINANCES.

Adopting the surveyor's report on the opening and extension of A street from Fourth to Second streets, referred to street committee.

Fixing the salary of the city marshal at $1080 per annum, payable monthly, referred to ways and means committee

Adopting the report of the surveyor on the opening and extension of Third street from Willamette to A streets referred to street committee

Fixing the salary of the city recorder at $1260 per annum passed

Making an appropriation of $19 0 out of the general fund for the general expenses of the city, passed

Making an appropriation of $7000 for street repairs, referred to the ways and means committee.

Making an appropriation for the fire fund of $357, referred to the ways and means committee.

Establishing the grades on certain streets, referred to the street committee

Making an assessment for the improvement of Twenty first street amounting to $6 1 61, passed

Providing for the improvement of Weidler street from First to Fifth streets passed

Making an appropriation for the improvement of Twenty first street passed

OTHER NOTES OF THE TOWN

THE SCHOOLS

The Stephens grades resumed work yesterday morning in the Odd Fellows building, Gruner's hall and Grant engine house. The rooms have been made as comfortable as possible and other conveniences will be added when found necessary. The grades will doubtless remain as now situated to the end of the school year as should a building be started now it would require about four months to complete it which would give but a short time in the new building, at the very best.

It will be necessary next year to put an addition to the North Central school building. The building was so built that an addition may be built to the north side without destroying the appearance of the main edifice. This district has no little business on hand for the coming year

HE WAS AT THE SCOW

"Shorty" who lives on the scow on which Nealy who was pulled from the river Friday night claims he was enticed, denies that he had anything to do with getting him there or that he was drugged. He says Nealy was brought to the scow by another man and that they both went away together Sunday. Nealy was seen in the company of another man and was very drunk. It seems very improbable that he was robbed of any money, and the money he claimed was missing he spent in a drunken spree. Judging from his condition when last seen, his funds will be very low when he returns home

FIREMEN'S ELECTION

The firemen's election last night resulted in the re-election of Henry Meyer as chief engineer. The vote stood Meyer, 48 Russell, 3. Dr. Lainter was chosen first assistant and George Hill second assistant. There will be a special meeting of the board of fire delegates Wednesday night December 11 to canvass the votes cast

THE THEATERS LAST NIGHT

Helen Blythe Scores a Success in "Mother's Love"—"The Sea of Ice" Pack Cordray's

Miss Helen Blythe, in her strong emotional play "Mother's Love" opened an engagement last night at the New Park and both the strength and finish of her acting fully justified the praise that has been lavished upon her. The play is a domestic story of a loving woman yielding her young heart to a kind but weak man. His fall through drink, an Arctic voyage to save him from his weakness, from which he does not return for years, his wife's sufferings, privations and efforts to care for their child in the meantime, and the husband's final return and reunion with his loved ones. The incidents are well told and there is a vein of amusing comedy which serves as a foil to the heavier scenes

Miss Helen Blythe in the role of Edith Gordon does some highly artistic work. There are several strong scenes in which she is particularly reminiscent of Clara Morris, the queen of emotional actresses. Especially is this so in the climax of the third act, where her child is taken from her. The quick, nervous movements, the intense feeling, the signs of mental and physical suffering. In the fourth act, too, where she recovers her child, she exhibits strong emotional power. She dresses in splendid toilets, also in the scenes requiring them, and her regal bearing well becomes her.

The star was ably seconded by Mr. J. F. Brien as Dr. Allen Gordon. His portrayal of tipsiness in the second act was carried out with the discretion of the intelligent actor, and his speaking of his lines was marked by the true feeling of the artist. He has a fine stage presence, which fits the part admirably

The supporting company is equal to the demands of the play. Mr. Malcolm Bradley being especially good as Major A. B. J. Slatters. His revolt against domestic tyranny, in the fourth act, simply convulsed the house.

The play was finely mounted, all the scenes being rich and appropriate, and it should draw large audiences while it runs.

"Mother's Love" again to night

"THE SEA OF ICE"

"The Sea of Ice" a familiar sensational drama held the boards at Cordray's Musee-Theater last night, with the popular favorite Mr. R. E. French in the leading role. The scenes of the play are so laid as to give almost unlimited opportunities for effective stage setting and these opportunities were used to fine advantage last night. The moving deck in the ocean scene was so realistic as actually to cause seasickness among those on the stage.

Mr. R. E. French, as Carlos the adventurer, afterward pretending to be the Marquis del Monte, was easy and natural, and some of his scenes were very strong, but his habit of chopping off his words too frequently asserted itself. Some of his costumes were magnificent

Mr. J. P. Craig, as Captain de Lascours spoke his lines fairly but his attitudes were far from what the part demanded.

Mr. C. L. Gray, in the little he had to do as Barabas, was extremely amusing, and gave evidence of more than average ability in the line of comedy

Miss Lillian Lawrence showed considerable strength in the dual role of Louise de Lascours and Ogarita, the Indian girl, and Miss Margaretta Marshall was quiet and dignified as the Countess de Theringe.

Miss Kate Dalgleish looked very pretty as Diana de Lascours, but was cast somewhat out of her line. The rest were fair

The members of the company were somewhat uncertain in their lines, even for a first night performance, but greater familiarity with the lines may be confidently expected the remainder of the week

The balcony was closed on account of repairs and every seat on the lower floor was occupied, as usual

"The Sea of Ice" again to-night.

NEWSY PARAGRAPHS.

Gospel meetings will continue at the First Baptist church every night this week. Dr. Gordon preaches and Professor Wilder sings. Everybody is invited

The government inspectors of steam vessels left last night for the Upper Columbia and Snake, where they will make a number of inspections, returning Thursday

The steamer State of California arrived at steamship dock last evening about 6 o'clock with a full cargo, fifteen first class and a large number of steerage passengers

Mr. L. H. Maxwell of the auditor's office of the O. R. & N. Co., has resigned his position to accept a position with the well known real estate firm of Borthwick & Batty

The poles for the Washington street electric motor line are all set as far down as Third street, and the track is nearly ready for business. The road will be ready for running by electricity as soon as the power house is completed

The Western Union's new line to Astoria on the south side of the Columbia is already out some five or six miles on the line of the Northern Pacific. The work will be pushed with all possible vigor

Owing to the wreck of the Idaho the steamer Michigan will resume her run to British Columbia and Sound ports. She will make her first sailing from Portland under the new arrangement, December 4.

The school tax roll is in the hands of the clerk, and taxes are now due and payable. As the district is paying interest on money it looks like a public spirited act to come up and pay promptly. So says School Clerk Allen

The T. J. Potter is to be laid off indefinitely. She will go down to the boneyard and go into a state of innocuous desuetude. She is not in need of repairs but is to be replaced by the cheaper R. R. Thompson on the night run to Astoria. The Thompson's Oregon side route will be assumed by the S. G. Reed

Superintendent Brandt, of the Southern Pacific, says that the Sunday washout will not affect traffic to-day but that all trains will make schedule time as a local force has the debris about cleared up. The site of the accident is one of the most dangerous on the road and has been the scene of a number of bad landslides

Now that Mr. Frazier has returned horsemen have had hopes of a speedy meeting of the association. However, it cannot occur at once owing to the enforced absence of President Rothschild. He returned yesterday from the Sound and leaves to-day for a four or five days trip to Spokane Falls. He purposes issuing a call upon his return

A messenger boy employed by the Telephone Company fell from a First street car yesterday afternoon and was knocked down by a passing team. Fortunately the little fellow escaped without injury and went to work again in the evening. He is anxious to have his name left out of the paper for the praiseworthy reason that his parents who live in Oregon City, would see it and be worried about him

United States Deputy Marshal Joe Fitzsimmons returned yesterday from seeing the Glenifer safe to sea and returning on the tugboat. Joe says no one will get on or off a ship while she is under his guard. Two ships which went out just prior to his appointment lost men by the boarding house people but the Glenifer got safely to sea. The saving of $87 on each stolen sailor will prove no small item to ship owners.

Every time there is an accident or an approach to one on the Fourth street tracks people make inquiries of the city auditor about the Southern Pacific's franchise. The ordinance which granted it was passed in 1869 and contains no provision for the expiration of the franchise. It is provided that a forfeiture may be worked by the company's refusal or neglect to comply with the city's regulating ordinances but aside from this there is nothing to interfere with the franchise being a perpetual one

Addition to a Great Hotel

The leading hotels of New York are doing a larger business this year than ever before in their history and it looks as though this pleasant state of affairs might continue for some time. The influx of guests from all parts of the country and in fact from all parts of the world is taxing the resources of some of the most fashionable houses to the utmost. In some cases it has become absolutely necessary to provide additional facilities, as for instance at the Buckingham, one of the most luxurious and sumptuous hotels in all America. As the building already occupied 200 feet on Fiftieth street besides the frontages on Fifth avenue and Forty-ninth street the owner some time ago decided to add a fireproof extension of about fifty feet on the Fifth avenue side which are now ready for occupancy

The new part is finished in the same artistic and comfortable style that distinguishes the rest of the house. The suite of parlors occupying the street floor of the new portion are for gentlemen and will afford them the various conveniences and comforts now deemed indispensable by those who frequent the modern first class hotel

The proprietors Messrs. Wetherbee & Fuller assert that the building is complete in every detail of a perfectly equipped hotel for permanent and transient guests being unsurpassed in that regard by any other house in New York.

Dr. Henry C. [illegible] physician and surgeon. Office [illegible] 12 A. M. 2 to 4 and [illegible] Office formerly occupied by Dr. [illegible] Union block [illegible] street below Stark

Take the Northern Pacific railroad, the best equipped line, for all points East. Office, No. 121 First street, corner Washington.

YESTERDAY IN THE COURTS.

Judge Deady Holds That L. Flynn's Claim Is Fraudulent

The Dodd-Chance Injunction Suit Argued—Frank Cline and Wife Sued on a Promissory Note—Other Notes

Judge Deady delivered an opinion in the United States circuit court yesterday in the case of Brady et al. vs. Searle & Dean. Defendants had a contract on the Oregon Pacific railroad, and Brady, et al., worked for them and sued to recover their wages in the state court at Albany in January 1889. Searle & Dean who are foreigners, moved the case to the United States circuit court, and on June 28 judgment was given for Brady et al., for $1057 49. Execution was issued but nothing could be found. A garnishee process was then issued against the O. P. R. R. Co. and L. Flynn. The company finally admitted that they owed Searle & Dean some $10,000 but the latter had assigned it to Flynn, therefore the company could not pay Brady et al. It appeared that Flynn had received $5176 76 from the railroad company, which he had applied in payment of a note for money he had loaned Searle & Dean, and the company also had paid Flynn $5,000 which he had paid out to creditors of Searle & Dean. Flynn also claimed that he owned the $10,000 still due to Searle & Dean. The court held that Flynn's claim was fraudulent, and gave judgment against the O. P. R. R. Co. for $1057 49, and interest since June 1889.

RETURNED TRUE BILLS.

The United States grand jury yesterday returned a true bill in the case of James Turk, charged with unlawfully boarding the ship Lord Canning and with harboring and secreting John Walmer, a seaman belonging to that ship. They also returned true bills in the cases of Billy Baker and John Francee, Indians of the Siletz reservation, charged with outraging a girl on the reservation. In the case of Arthur Waddell charged with obstructing the mail on the narrow gauge they returned not a true bill.

DODD-CHANCE INJUNCTION SUIT

Arguments were made before Judge Stearns yesterday morning in the injunction suit brought against the Metropolitan Railway Company by C. H. Dodd and Dr. George H. Chance, to prevent its line from being run along Second street. Hon. George H. Williams appeared for the plaintiffs, and Alfred F. Sears jr. for the defendants. The case was taken under advisement.

THE SANDY OLDS CASE.

The motion for a new trial in the case of Sandy Olds, convicted of the murder of Emil Weber, was argued before the judges of the supreme court yesterday afternoon. District Attorney Henry E. McGinn appeared for the state, and Richard Williams for the appellant. The case was taken under advisement and a decision will probably be rendered to-morrow

ALLOWED TIME TO ANSWER.

In the case of the Connecticut Fire Insurance Company vs. E. Oldendorff et al. to recover some $2700 in which amount it was claimed he was a defaulter, a demurrer to the complaint was overruled, the court holding that the defendants sureties were simply sureties and not guarantors. Defendant was allowed ten days to answer

TO FILE IN DEFENSE

In the United States circuit court yesterday, in the case of Lee vs. Gault, the court allowed defendant to file in defense that he was in possession as assignee of a mortgagee in possession, under a sale in fact of the mortgaged premises, the debt not yet being otherwise paid.

SUIT ON A PROMISSORY NOTE.

M. M. Hunter began an attachment suit in the circuit court yesterday against Frank Cline and Jennie L. Cline for the sum of $60 67

BEFORE JUDGE TANNER.

The following cases were disposed of in the police court yesterday

William Reed, James McElroy and Richard Phelan, drunk, $5 each. Fiddler Williams, same charge, five days in the city jail. Mack Kelly and J. Smith disorderly conduct, $10 each. P. Ryan, drunkard, disorderly conduct continued until Saturday

Harry Lewis a self confessed vagrant was sent up for thirty days and William Wallace the man who went about the city asking for assistance on the strength of an imaginary sore head which he had bandaged up, was fined $20 on the same charge

Ah Sue, a Chinaman charged with trespassing in the apartments of another Celestial, was sentenced to serve ten days in the city jail and James McDonald who was arrested for occupying the grand stand on the plaza during a heavy shower, was discharged

Frank Wilson was fined $20 for roaming the streets after 12 o'clock midnight. Ong Jim $5 for driving upon a sidewalk, and John Johnson $10 for fighting

A variety actress named Dora Bennington was arraigned on a charge of relieving one C. B. Hugett of $25. Hugett, who was considerably under the influence of liquor at the time he made the complaint, alleged that the defendant took the money from him in one of the boxes of the theater. This she denied

The defendant was ready for examination but as the state was not and rather than return to the police court again she waived examination. Her bonds in the sum of $500 were promptly furnished. Hugett will have an examination on a charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct this afternoon

Harry Lewis, in addition to receiving a thirty days sentence for vagrancy was held to answer before the grand jury under bonds in the sum of $500 on a charge of stealing an umbrella from Ed. Hadley

The cases of Ed Morgan charged with assault and battery on Elias Moses and Gus Green, charged with fighting were continued until this afternoon, and that of J. Richardson, charged with driving a truck without a license, was continued until Saturday.

Does it hurt the Clothes?

We hear that some woman said of Pearline—"it's the greatest thing I ever saw for easy washing and cleaning, in fact it does so much I'm afraid of it." She recalls the old saying, "too good to be true"

How absurd to suppose that the universal popularity of Pearline is due to anything but wonderful merit.

How absurd to suppose that millions of women would use PEARLINE year after year if it hurt the hands or clothing.

How absurd to suppose that any sane man would risk a fortune in advertising an article which would not stand the most severe (and women are critical) tests.

That's just what PEARLINE will stand—test it for easy work—quality of work—for saving time and labor—wear and tear—economy—test it any way you will—but test it. You'll find PEARLINE irresistible.

Beware Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers are offering imitations which they claim to be Pearline or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE—they are not, and besides are dangerous. 166 Manufactured only by JAMES PYLE New York.
